ESTABLISHED 1833. FORT WAYNE, IND., MONDAY, OCT., 22, 1900. PRICE TWO CENTS

FOR THE OPEN DOOR

That Was the Closing Suggestion of America's Reply to the French Proposals.

CORRESPONDENCE MADE PUBLIC

Washington, Oct. 22.—The state department today made public the correspondence which has taken place between itself and the French government since the original French note respecting China, which laid down the terms suggested by France as a basis of negotiation for a settlement.

This last correspondence consists of two notes exchanged between Secretary Hay and M. Thiebaut last week, putting in formal shape certain verbal statements of importance respecting the negotiation.

An interesting and important feature of the United States note is the closing suggestion that the powers bind themselves again to preserve Chinese territorial integrity and to maintain the "open door," exactly the objects aimed in the British-German agreement or alliance which was made public last week.

While this note by Secretary Hay bears date of October 19th, and the British-German agreement is assigned the date of October 16th, the action of this government was taken in ignorance of the agreement and it is entirely possible that it may have been the means of bringing about a disclosure of its purposes.

Our suggestion indicates a favorable response by the United States government to the invitation to join with Great Britain and Germany in the objects specified.

The correspondence is as follows:

"(Correspondence, Chinese Affairs, October 17-19, 1900.)

"In further relation to the proposals of the government of the French republic respecting the bases for the settlement to be negotiated between the powers and the Chinese government.

"The French charge d'affairs to the secretary of state. (Handed the secretary of state by the French charge d'affaires, M. Thiebaut, October 17, 1900.)

"(Translation.)

"'Embassy of the French republic to the United States, Washington, October 17,1900—The government of the republic has highly appreciated the response which the government of the United States has made to its note of the 4th of October; it has been especially gratifying to it to observe the sentiment of sympathy for France which have been evidently inspired in that reply.

"'All the interested powers have adhered to the essential principle of the French note. In so far as concerns the points which have called forth comments on the part of certain cabinets, they could, it would seem, be discussed among the powers or between their diplomatic representatives at Pekin in the course of the negotiations, and receive such modifications as might be judged necessary in order to more surely and speedily attain the common end.

"'The essential thing now is to show the Chinese government, which has declared itself ready to negotiate, that the powers are animated by the same spirit; that they are decided to respect the integrity of China and the independence of its government; but that they are none the less resolved to obtain the satisfaction to which they have a right.

"'In this regard it would seem that if the proposition which has been accepted as the basis of negotiations were communicated to the Chinese plenipotentiaries by the ministers of the powers at Pekin, or in their name by their dean, this step would be of a nature to have a happy influence upon the determinations of the emperor of China and of his government.

"'It goes without saying that this collective step would in no wise interfere with the examination of the points in the French proposition to which the reservations made by certain governments relate.

"'The minister for foreign affairs would be prticularly happy to learn that this also wa sthe opinion of the president of the United States and of the honorable secretary of state, and that they have thought it opportune to send to the minister of the United States in Pekin instructions in this sense.'

"The Secretary of State to the French Charge d'Affaires (Sent to Mr. Thiebaut, Oct. 19, 1900.)

"'Memorandum in response to the memorandum in regard to the basis and conduct of negotiations for a settlement of pending questions between the powers and China delivered to the secretary of state by the French charge d'affaires, Oct. 17, 1900.

"'The government of the United States is gratified to learn that all the interested powers have adhered to the essential principle of the French note of Oct. 4, and trusts that such reservations as they have suggested will, like those mentioned in the reply of the United States, prove no embarrassment to the progress of the negotiation, in the course of which they can be frankly discussed with a view to a common agreement.

"'Holding as it does in accord with the French government, that the essential thing now is to prove to the Chinese government that the powers are ready to meet it in the path of peaceful negotiation, and that they are united in their repeatedly declared decision to respect the integrity of China and the independence of its government, while equally united in the resolve to obtain rightful satisfaction for the great wrongs they and their nations have suffered, this government has instructed its minister in Pekin to concur in presenting to the Chinese plenipotentiaries the points upon which we are agreed as the initial step towards negotiations and towards the re-establishment of the effective power and authority of the imperial government.

"'The government of the United States believes that the happy influence upon the determinations of the Chinese emperor and of his government which the government of the French republic anticipates as the result of this step would be still further induced if the powers were to include as part of their initial declaration a collective manifestation of their determination to preserve the territorial integrity and the administrative entirety of China, and to secure, for the Chinese nation and for themselves, the benefits of open and equal commercial intercourse between the Chinese empire and the world at large.

"'Department of State, Washington, Oct. 19, 1900.'"

OPINIONS OF AMERICANS.

New York, Oct. 22.—Oscar S. Strauss, minister to Turkey, said of the Anglo-German agreement respecting China, the terms of which have been made public:

"This agreement between Germany and England is substantially in the line of the policy instituted by our government under the open door agreement, and I regard it as the best and only possible solution of the Chinese situation. American diplomacy has gained such recognition as it never had before in the eyes of the world.

"Our government will not become a party to a formal agreement or convention which is outlined between Germany and England, but it can by an identical note make known its acceptance of the terms of such an agreement without binding itself to take joint action with those two powers should any one or more of the great European powers endeavor to partition China.

"Doubtless this convention between England and Germany would not have been made had it not been for their knowledge of our position regarding the open door and in the circular note issued in July by Secretary Hay. It is my opinion that this plan will solve the Chinese question, and with England, Germany and the United States practically agreed, the other nations will accept enthusiastically the same terms."

Prof. John Bassett Moore said:

"The policy of the United States in a grave crisis that has arisen in China was expressed in the circular issued by the secretary of state on July 3 last.

"Now, mark how closely Germany and England have followed along the path marked out by Secretary Hay.

"There have been other and great diplomatic victories to be credited to American statesmen, but it is certainly pleasant to dwell upon the fact that right at the close of the century we have pointed a sure way to free commerce and free seas."

JUROR SICK IN FERRELL CASE.

Marysville, Ohio, Oct. 22.—Owing to the illness of a juror, the trial of Rosslyn Ferrell, charged with killing Express Messenger Lane, was adjourned until tomorrow. Ferrell's mother and Miss Costello called today on Mrs. Lane. An affecting meeting followed:

VERDICT FOR THE DEFENDANT

MARTIN KRIDER FAILS TO GET DAMAGES

The circuit court jury, which spent all of last week listening to evidence and arguments in the case commenced by Martin Krider against Edward Kinnerk for alleged alienation of his wife's affections, retired Saturday afternoon and deliberated until 8 in the evening, when they agreed and handed a sealed verdict to the bailiff. The verdict was opened this morning by Judge O'Rourke, and was found to be in favor of the defendant. The demand was for $3,000. A. H. Bittinger and Judge Allen Zollars represented plaintiff and Henry Colerick and S. L. Somers were defendant's attorneys.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Vesey is today hearing evidence in a sensational divorce case. Philip Schmidt asks for a divorce from his wife, Eliza Schmidt, and the testimony is somewhat racy; in fact, so much so that Judge Vesey was compelled to protest against some questions asked. Colerick & Thomas and James E. Graham are attorneys in the case.

Emma Bessert has begun suit against her husband, Gustave Bessert, for support of herself and child. The demand is for $500. M. T. Stokes is attorney for plaintiff.

The election commissioners are preparing to receive bids for the printing of ballots to be voted for county and township offices. All of the tickets have been filed, the time for filing having expired last evening.

ZION'S CHURCH CELEBRATES

SPECIAL SERVICES MARK AN ANNIVERSARY.

Lutheran Congregation Rejoices Over Its Prosperity—Church Debt is Reduced.

Zion's Lutheran church, at the corner of East Creighton avenue and Hanna streets, held special services Sunday marking the ninth anniversary of the dedication of its edifice, and three immense congregations demonstrated the interest shown in the occasion.

The anniversary sermon was delivered in the morning by the pastor, Rev. Ch. Luehr, who, in the course of his remarks, told of the past history of Zion's church and of its hopes for the future. In the afternoon special services were held for the children, and here the young people manifested their concern for the church by a splendid program. The evening sermon was delivered by Rev. Jacob Miller, of St. Paul's church, and the choir rendered special music of a very high order. During the day nearly $2,000 was contributed toward reducing the debt upon the building.

Dr. and Mrs. P. T. Henson, of Pleasureville, Ky., have returned home after a brief visit with their son, Rev. L. L. Henson, and family.

The two children of Mr. and Mrs. Lauer, of Wells street, who have been ill with lung trouble, are recovering.

IN WEST VIRGINIA

MR. BRYAN BEGINS SECOND TOUR OF STATE.

CATCHES HIS RUNAWAY CAR

BIG MEETING IN HUNTINGTON

CROWD FROM THREE STATES GREETS CANDIDATE.

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 22.—William J. Bryan, after chasing his private car, the "Rambler," from Buffalo, succeeded in overhauling it at Kenova early today. Mr. Bryan reached Kenova by regular train shortly after midnight. Owing to the fact that he would find it impossible to cover the short distance between Huntington and Kenova without engaging a special conveyance, Colonel McGraw sent a special engine, with the "Rambler," to Kenova, so that when Mr. Bryan arrived all he had to do was to step from one sleeping car to another. As a consequence he lost little sleep and the West Virginia party found him this morning thoroughly rested and quite prepared for the day's work.

Mr. Bryan was entertained at breakfast in this city by Judge Harvey.

At 10 o'clock Mr. Bryan made in this city the first speech of his second West Virginia tour. From the surrounding counties thousands of visitors had poured into the city. Ohio and Kentucky were also represented in the crowd. Mr. Bryan talked from a stand gaily decorated with the national colors erected on a vacant block. Rain began to fall about 9 o'clock, but the great majority of the audience remained to hear Mr. Bryan, who was received with loud applause. Judge Holt presided. Taking up the full dinner pail argument Mr. Bryan attacked the theory that a well supplied table could meet all the demands of working people. Referring to Governor Roosevelt's recent visit to this city, he said:

"I understand that you had a parade here and a man was carrying a bucket in the parade and someone asked him if his dinner pail was full. He said, 'No, it is empty, and I had twice as much as it worth then.' You will find lots of men who have the same complaint."

In connection with the discussion of the question of government by injunction Mr. Bryan quoted an extract from an article alleged to have been written for the Review of Reviews by Governor Roosevelt, in September, 1896, and continued:

"The laboring men who are opposed to government by injunction can here find what opinion the republican party has of you as stated by the man who now represents the republican party as its candidate."

Mr. Bryan then quoted Governor Roosevelt as writing "the men who object to what they style 'government by injunction, are, as regards the essential principles of government, in hearty sympathy with their remote skin-clad ancestors, who lived in caves, fought one another with stone axes and ate the mammoth and wooly rhinocerous."

Commenting on this, Mr. Bryan said:

"I want to ask you whether you expect any relief from government by injunction from people that say any man who is opposed to government by injunction ought to be classed with the man who ate the wooly rhinosceros. The democratic party is opposed to government by injunction. The democratic party believes that right of trial by jury is a sacred thing and that if you can give it to the meanest thief and the blackest murderer, you ought to give it to the laboring man as well."

Mr. Bryan discussed the trusts at length, referring as usual to the ice trust.

Referring to the question of imperialism, Mr. Bryan declared that the republican party cannot defend it and is therefore saying there is no such thing.

Discussing our title to the Philippines, Mr. Bryan said we had none that is legitimate.

"Forty years ago," he said, "the republican party was contending that you could not buy a black man for $1,000. Now they are willing to buy brown men in job lots at $2.50 apiece."

He closed with an appeal to the people of this country not to further complicate the race question of this country by adding any more alien people to our population.

STEVENSON IN MICHIGAN.

Mr. Stevenson said he was feeling splendidly and was very confident of democratic success.

"I was particularly impressed," said he, "by the enthusiasm shown by the New York voters."

During his trip through the state Mr. Stevenson will speak in eleven different cities.

LAKESIDE LINE IS FINISHED

TRACK IMPROVEMENTS HAVE COST $15,000.

The Fort Wayne Traction company has completed its track improvements on the Lakeside line and beginnig this morning the Lewis street cars resumed their old schedule, running through from Walton avenue to Delta lake without the transfer necessary while the work of relaying track was under way. Manager Scott stated this morning that the cost of the new improvement on the Lakeside line had been $15,000.

Another work which the traction company has just taken up is the rebuilding of the old Belt line cars, which went out of service when the new and larger cars were placed on the line some months ago. The old cars are being thoroughly rebuilt and equipped for use on other lines, and when they come from the shops the public will be unable to recognize them as those which formerly made the circuit of the Belt line.

They are to be exact models of the present Belt line cars. Each car is cut in twain and a section inserted in the center which will bring it out to the desired length, the cane upholstered seats will replace those formerly in use, and the vestibules will be lowered to conform to the design of the newer cars. Manager Scott says that the present Belt line design is the most perfect and satisfactory street car in service, and during the past summer it was demonstrated that a vast majority of people preferred them to the summer cars. They are easier of access, comfortable in appointment and with large windows open answer every purpose of the open car. In fact, the public preference is so pronounced that the company has decided to have the rebuilt cars conform in every way to the newer models.

NEW HAVEN ELMS DYING.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 22.—The report of the special commission of citizens appointed to investigate the condition of the elm trees in the city has just been handed in. It shows that through various causes New Haven is rapidly losing the fine elms that have made the city famous, and that in a few years, unless something is done, the traditional city of elms will be only a name. Hundreds of them are dying off each year now and in windstorms are blown down. The mayor is advised by the commissioner to spray the elm trees regularly with beetle-killing substances, to plant new and strong trees in place of the old ones and to employ a skilled forester.

MISTOOK HIM FOR A DEER.

Bangor, Maine, Oct. 22.—The second fatal shooting accident of the season in the Maine woods occurred at Nahmakanta lake Thursday, when W. L. Pond, of Torringford, Conn., was instantly killed by his companion, Willey M. Latimer, of Torringford, who mistook him for a deer. They were hunting a little way apart and Pond made a rustling noise among some bushes. Latimer heard the noise and, thinking it was made by a deer, fired in the direction of the bushes without stopping to investigate. A cry of pain followed the shot and Latimer rushed to the spot only to find his companion dead.

SHAMROCKS WON.

The Fort Wayne Shamrocks played the Greens at South Bend yesterday and the Fort Wayne boys won by a score of 4 to 3. This was the last game of the season for the Greens, but the Shamrocks will play at South Whitley next Thursday.

JOHN SHERMAN DEAD

A LONG AND EMINENT CAREER

Washington, Oct. 22.—Hon. John Sherman, former representative in the house, for a long term a member of the senate, and twice holding cabinet positions, died at his residence in this city at a quarter before seven o'clock this morning, in the seventy-eighth year of his age.

His death had been expected for some days and loving friends gave him their unremitting care and attention to the end. The immediate cause of death was described as brain exhaustion, incident to extreme weakness, due to old age and to several attacks of sickness from which he had suffered for the past year and a half.

Since Saturday afternoon Mr. Sherman had been for the most time unconscious, rallying partially at intervals when some slight nourishment was given him.

REMAINED UNCONSCIOUS.

Yesterday afternoon evidences of the approaching end were manifest and he has failed to regain consciousness after 3 o'clock, passing away peacefully just after dawn broke. About 1 o'clock this morning he rallied somewhat from the stupor and turned himself over in bed, but after that he gradually sank until the end came.

During the day and evening a number of inquiries were made at the house concerning the condition of the sick man, President McKinley being among those who sent to ask about him.

Several days ago, realizing the critical condition of Mr. Sherman, the members of the household and relatives here sent telegrams to a large number of the family connections throughout the country notifying them of his extreme illness and some were able to reach here before he died.

FRIENDS AT BEDSIDE.

Most of those who arrived were at the bedside when the end came, the number including Mr. and Mrs. Colgate Hoyt, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wiborg, of Cincinnati; Mrs. William K. Otis, of New York City; P. Trumseh Sherman, a son of the late General Sherman; Charles M. Sherman, of Chicago, and Miss Lizzie Sherman.

Others who were at the bedside were Mrs. James McCallum, the adopted daughter, who had been his constant attendant, and her husband.

General and Mrs. Miles, the latter a niece of Secretary Sherman, were at the house the greater portion of the day and evening, but left for their home shortly after midnight. They were summoned when it was apparent that the end was near and reached the house a few minutes after the venerable statesman had passed away.

Secretary Sherman's demise occurred in the handsome home on K street, which he had erected eight years ago. It is a large double structure with white stone front, and with the hall running through the middle.

The house faces on Franklin Square, the prettiest reservation and park in the capital city. Some weeks ago he deeded this valuable property to Mrs. McCallum.

OWNED MUCH REAL ESTATE.

The secretary was a large holder of real estate in this city, having invested extensively in that line from time and time during his residence here. Conservative estimates of his wealth place it at a round million dollars, most of which is believed to consist of Washington real estate.

Other investments consist of securities and it is stated that the old family home at Mansfield, Ohio, remained in his possession, notwithstanding reports that he had disposed of it prior to his return to Washington last month.

Arrangements for the funeral will be completed today. As tentatively determined they contemplate service both at the residence in this city and at Mansfield, where the interment will be made in the family burial ground, beside the body of Mrs. Sherman, who died early in the summer.

FUNERAL TUESDAY.

The services here will be held probably on Tuesday afternoon, the remains to lie at the house after their conclusion until in the evening, when they will be put on a special train for Mansfield, leaving here at 8 o'clock. Some time ago Secretary and Mrs. Sherman occupied a pew in the Epiphany church here, but in later years the secretary had no church affiliations. It is expected that Rev. Mackay-Smith, of St. John's Episcopal church, or Rev. Dr. Aspinwall, of St. Thomas' Episcopal church, of this city, will be asked to conduct the funeral services.

Arriving at Mansfield on Wednesday the remains will lie in state in the Episcopal church in that city until the following day, when the interment will take place.

LONG IN POOR HEALTH.

Mr. Sherman had not been in robust health for considerably over a year. In March, 1899, while on a pleasure trip to the French and Spanish West Indias, in company with a relative, Frank Wiborg, he suffered a severe attack of pneumonia which almost proved fatal. The ship on which they were traveling touched at Santiago, from which place reports came to the United States that the well known statesman had succumbed to the disease. He rallied, however, and the family accepted the offer of the United States government to bring him back to the United States on the Cruiser Chicago, then in the vicinity of Cuba, and he was safely landed at Fort Monroe and brought to his home in this city. Here he gained strength and was strong enough by summer to visit his home in Ohio. His remarkable vitality brought him through a relapse which he suffered during the heated term and by autumn he had regained his strength and seemed to be in good spirits. He spent last winter at his home in this city enjoying fairly good health, occasionally going out to social affairs and attending the theater with the members of his family. The family left here early in the spring for the old homestead at Mansfield, Ohio.

WIFE'S DEATH A HARD BLOW.

They were there but a short time when Mrs. Sherman, whose health had been very frail, died. This was a severe blow to the secretary, from which he never fully recovered. He remained at Mansfield until the middle of September, when he returned to Washington.

The secretary was very much broken in health and spirits, but for a time was able to move about in the open air and to take short rides around the city. For the past three weeks or more, however, he had been confined to his bed, his general debility being aggravated by an irritating bronchial cough that hastened the end.

Among Mr. Sherman's former associates in the senate his demise will be sincerely felt without reference to party. In this field of activity his services has been particularly able and successful. He had served so long that experience added to his natural talents.

He was a recognized master of all the great public questions, past and present, and he had at his fingers' ends all the arrayal of facts, figures

POLITICAL CHAT

CHAS. K. LADD WILL BE HERE SATURDAY.

BIG CROWD AT HUNTINGTON

SENATOR FAIRBANKS NEXT WEDNESDAY EVENING.

POLITICAL MEETINGS FIXED

TWO MEETINGS TO BE HELD TONIGHT—GOSSIP.

The democratic state committee has assigned Hon. Charles K. Ladd to speak in Fort Wayne next Saturday evening. Mr. Ladd is one of Illinois' best speakers and was to have been here last Friday, but failed to come. The Hendricks and Jefferson clubs may decide to go to Decatur next Saturday evening at which time Adams county democrats will have a grand rally.

SENATOR FAIRBANKS COMING.

Senator C. W. Fairbanks is advertised to speak at Princess rink next Wednesday evening, October 24, and arrangements are being made to tender him a big reception when he arrives. Next Monday evening Senator Beveridge will speak at Princess rink.

BIG POLITICAL EXCURSION.

The Wabash railway last Saturday evening carried to Huntington the greatest number of Fort Wayne citizens who ever left the city to attend a political meeting. The Jefferson and Hendricks clubs had arranged to repay the visit of the Huntington democrats of Friday evening and the Wabash railway made ready to carry 600 passengers on a special train, which was to have left the city at 6:30 p. m. The marching clubs had invited other democrats to attend and the result was an overwhelming rush at the depot. At 6 o'clock not a ticket had been sold, but long before time for the train to start District Passenger Agent Thompson and Ticket Agent Douglass had sold 919 tickets, all that were in the office. They refused to sell any more, although between 400 and 500 additional people were ready to purchase and make the trip. Eleven coaches had been provided, but this wasn't enough, and two baggage cars were attached. The cars were soon packed and there wasn't standing room in any of the thirteen cars for a bean-pole. Conductor Henry Gage had charge of the train and he collected, besides the 919 tickets, a large number of fares. It is estimated that there were 1,100 people in the thirteen cars, including the Olympia band, the Jefferson drum corps and the Eighth ward drum corps. It was 7:20 when the train left Fort Wayne with 500 disappointed democrats on the depot platform cheering those who had been lucky enough to get on the train. The train was more than an hour making the trip to Huntington, but when it did arrive thousands of cheering democrats were at the depot to meet them, while the streets were thronged with thousands more who were desirous of seeing the big turnout of Fort Wayne democrats. The parade started immediately on the arrival of the Fort Wayne clubs and the utmost enthusiasm abounded. All along the line there were continued shouts of "Hurrah for Fort Wayne," and to say that the excursionists were happy is putting it only mildly. The parade was the biggest affair Huntington ever saw of its kind and impartial observers assert that never before in its history did the Lime City have a bigger crowd on its streets. Several hundred railroad men went with the Hendricks club and there were besides a few members from every ward club in the city, and also a score or more of pretty young ladies. After the big parade the Fort Wayne visitors were given the liberty of the town and for more than three hours Huntington heard unceasing shouts for Bryan, while the Eighth ward drum corps paraded about the streets leading hundreds who never did cease shouting for the great leader of democratic hosts. It was 12 o'clock when the train started back for Fort Wayne, and while the visitors made the welkin ring with their shouts, there had not been a single happening to mar the pleasure of the trip. Mayor Dungan and C. D. Landis, chairman of the democratic county committee, were profuse in their thanks to the Fort Wayne clubs, and with Huntingtonians, at least, Fort Wayne has "squared" itself for the big crowds that have often come here. The merchants of the city, regardless of politics, were pleased at Fort Wayne's turnout, and it is now certain that this city will always have the citizens of the Lime City as allies in any demonstration which may hereafter be given. Major Menzies delivered the address of the evening at Clayton's hall and a big crowd heard him.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Jacob Ingenthron, a noted German speaker, will this evening address the German voters of the Seventh and Tenth wards at Hartman's hall, on Hanna street.

The republicans of the Sixth ward will have a rally this evening. There will be addresses in the tent at the corner of Broadway and Creighton avenue by R. B. Hanna, P. A. Randall and J. F. W. Meyer.

Hon. James M. Robinson and Judge Edward O'Rourke delivered addresses before a large audience of democrats at Monroeville last Saturday evening. John Connolly presided.

The Eighth ward drum corps will meet at Vogely's hall Wednesday evening and lead a parade of the club members throughout the ward. Jacob Ingenthron will deliver an address in German and there will also be an English speech at the hall after the parade.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.

Democratic meetings have been arranged as follows for next week:

Thursday evening, at Besancon school, Jefferson township; speakers, Congressman Robinson and C. A. Ryan.

Saturday evening, Monroeville; Henry Colerick and Ronald T. Dawson.

Saturday evening, Maysville; Congressman Robinson and H. I. Smith.

Saturday evening, Fisher school house, Pleasant township; James M. Barrett.

Tuesday evening, Williamsport; Henry Colerick and H. S. Pulse.

Tuesday evening, Fry's school house, Madison township; Henry Colerick and A. E. Thomas.

Friday evening, Sheldon; Judge O'Rourke and A. E. Thomas.

Hon. R. B. Hanna, republican candidate for congress, accompanied by the Angola and Pleasant Lake glee clubs, with a bugler in advance to notify the people of his coming, will make a tour of Steuben county this week, arriving and speaking as follows: Pleasant Lake, Friday, Oct. 26, at 1:30 p. m.; Hudson, 2:00; Helmer, 3:00; Salem, 4:00; Flint, 5:00; Orland, 7:30. Begin at Jamestown, October 27, at 7:30 a. m.; Fremont at 8:30; district No. 4, Clear Lake, 9:30; Page, 10:15; Metz, 11:30; Ellis, 12:30 p. m., and Angola at 1:30.

HANNA AT GARRETT.

R. B. Hanna, candidate for congress, spoke at Garrett Saturday evening and the Tippecanoes and other Fort Wayne republicans went over to hear him. The local republicans had arranged for a 55-cent fare and 148 tickets were sold. Mr. Hanna delivered an address at a big meeting and General Bussey was also to have spoken, but as soon as Mr. Hanna had finished the crowd dispersed and the general spoke about fifteen minutes. C. R. Lane and others addressed an overflow meeting.

A HANNA MEETING.

The republican central committee has arranged for a "Bob" Hanna meeting to be held in this city Thursday evening, November 1, when Mr. Hanna will address the wage-earners of the county at Princess rink.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—With steady cables, bullish weekly statistics and rains in the northwest, the first hour of trade today failed to show the strength that had been expected. This was accounted for by the lack of outside business and the bearishness which seems to have become a habit with the local crowd. December opened ⅛c higher at 74¾c, dropped to 74⅛c and then rallied to 74⅝c. Local receipts were 344 cars, 3 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 506 cars, against 1,703 last week and 1,155 a year ago.

Near the end the market became extremely dull and December slumped from 74¾c to 74⅛@74¼c, closing weak, ⅜@½c lower at 74½@74¼c. The visible increase was 1,335,000 bushels.

Corn was quiet and steady with a fair general trade, unsettled weather and higher cables being supporting influences. Receipts were 653 cars. December opened unchanged at 35⅝c and advanced to 35¾@@35⅞c.

The colse was firm, December ⅛c higher at 35¾c.

Oats were dull but steady on the weather and in sympathy with corn. Receipts were 275 cars. December opened unchanged at 22½c and sold to 22¼c.

Provisions were quiet but firm on moderate hogs receipts, strong prices at the yards and moderate buying by outside interests. January pork opened 5c higher at $11.45, January lard 2½c up at $6.70, and January ribs a shade lower at 6.02½@6.05.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—Oct., 73⅜c; Nov., 73½c; Dec., 74⅛@74¼c

Corn—Oct., 40½c; Nov., 38⅛@38¼c; Dec., 35¾c; May, 36¾@36⅞c.

Oats—Oct., 21½@21¾c; Nov., 21⅛c; Dec., 22⅛@22¼c; May, 24½c.

Pork—Nov., $11.02½; aJn., $11.40.

Lard—Oct., $7.00; Nov., $6.97½; Dec., $6.80; Jan., $6.67½.

Ribs—Oct., $6.97; Nov., $6.32½; Jan., $6.02½.

Flax—Cash N. W., $1.82; Cash S W., $1.80@1.81; Oct., $1.80; Nov., $1.73@1.75; Dec., $1.70; May, $1.70.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Cattle—Receipts, 19,500, including 6,000 westerns and 1,000 Texans; market generally strong to 10c higher. Good to prime steers, $5.50@5.95; poor to medium, $5.40@5.45; stockers and feeders, $2.75@4.45; cows, $2.80@4.40; heifers, $2.80@4.85; canners, $2.00@2.75; bulls, $2.75@4.40; calves, $4.00@6.25; Texas fed steers, $4.10@4.90; Texas grass steers, $3.40@4.15; Texas bulls, $2.75@3.75.

Hogs—Receipts today, 31,000; tomorrow, 25,000; left over, 2,000 Market 5c higher; top, $4.92½. Mixed and butchers, $4.60@4.92½, good to choice heavy, $4.65@4.90; rough heavy, $4.50@4.60; light, $4.50@4.90; bulk of sales, $4.70@4.80.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Oct. 22.—First transactions in many prominent stocks were very large, ranging from 1,000 shares blocks up to 5,000 shares in Atchison preferred. Prices moved upward throughout, but the gains in the Steel stocks were most notable, ranging from 1 to 3 points, the latter in National Tube. Tennessee Coal showed a slightly reactionary tendency.

Rapid fluctuations in either direction marked the first hour's trading. The dealings were on an enormous scale and variations of a point or more were common in the specialties. Pressed Steel Car was rushed up 7¼ to 48 on the announcement that one-quarter of the year dividend on the common stock would be paid. The Republic Steel stocks were erratic and feverish. Professional operators unloaded heavily and there were some distinctly weak spots, notably Chesapeake and Ohio, Burlington, Norfolk and Western, Manhattan and People's Gas. The latter suffered ⅜. The realizing began to affect prices. Pressed Steel Car reacted 4 points, when Sugar was rushed up to 123⅜. The market steadied and became quieter.

A renewed demand for the Steel stocks brought some of them up notably, but as a rule the general market failed to return to the best prices and inclined lower. Baltimore and Ohio was the exture of the active railroads, rising to 75½. Large buying of Southern Pacific helped it somewhat, and Lake Erie and Western preferred rose 4 points. United States Rubber advanced 2⅝ before noon and a sudden rise of 3⅜ in People's Gas served to sustain the market.

Bonds were active and strong.

NEW YORK PRODUCE.

PERISHED IN THE RUINS

FOUR FIREMEN CRUSHED TO DEATH IN ST. PAUL.

Men Buried in the Debris of Falling Walls—Many Others Received Severe Injuries.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 22.—As a result of a fire which broke out in the slaughtering pen of A. V. Minman & Co.'s packing house, at the Minnesota transfer, four firemen are dead and a number of others are injured, and property to the amount of $430,000 burned.

The dead:

William M. Irvine, second assistant fire chief.

Lieut. Frank M. Edey, engine company No. 13.

Burt Irish, engine company No. 13.

Louis Wagner, engine company No. 13.

The injured:

Andrew Johnson, engine company No. 13; taken from the ruins badly crushed.

The fire is supposed to have been incendiary.

BURIED UNDER FALLING WALL

From the packing house the flames spread to the warehouse of the Northwestern Lime company, thence to the McCormick harvester company's large brick warehouse, filled with farm machinery. It was here that the fatalities occurred. The firemen of engine company No. 13 had entered the McCormick warehouse to better fight the flames. There was a tank containing 200 gallons of gasoline in the rear of the building and its explosion shattered the walls, which buried the men. Andrew Johnson was taken from the ruins alive, but so badly injured that he is expected to die. The bodies of the other victims have all been recovered. The losses so far as can be ascertained are:

The McCormick harvester company was the heaviest loser, their loss footing up $330,000. Of this $80,000 was on buildings and $300,000 on stock and notes.

GIRL'S DEFENDER IS SLAIN.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Thomas J. Griffin, a clerk employed by N. K. Fairbanks & Co., was shot yesterday and instantly killed while trying to protect Miss Fay Gilbert from the attack of a strange man, in front of No. 2220 State street. When the stranger saw that Griffin was about to interfere with his designs on Miss Gilbert, he drew his revolver. Unmindful of the threatening muzzle of the weapon, the shipping clerk grappled with the assailant. In a moment he fell to the sidewalk with a bullet through his heart. The murderer escaped.

HOME IS IN OHIO.

Sunday afternoon a stranger got onto a Belt line car and for three hours enjoyed himself riding around the Belt line, settling each time for the trip. The police were notified and suspecting that he might be insane he was taken into custody. This morning a letter addressed to Joseph Hacker, Stedeke, Ohio, was found in his pockets. Sheriff Melching telegraphed the Mercer county sheriff and received a telegram in reply this afternoon requesting that Hacker be held until Sheriff Lawrence Schunck arrived here.

WORK IS STOPPED

AT A WASHERY BY A BAND OF MARCHERS.

THE DEPUTIES WARNED AWAY

FIRST HOSTILE MOVE IN THE LACKAWANNA VALLEY.

APPEAL FOR AID IS ISSUED

STRIKERS ASK FOR HELP TO CARRY ON STRUGGLE.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 22.—The first hostile demonstration of the miners' strike in the Lackawanna region was made this morning at Oliphant, near here, where it was determined to close down the Grassy Island coal washery operated by the Delaware and Hudson company. The place had been working a force of thirty men during the past two weeks and was daily turning out a thousand tons of the smaller sizes of fuel for the market. This morning several hundred strikers gathered along the road near the washery and when the workmen appeared circled around them and gave them to understand they must desist from working until the strike was settled. Two of the deputies at the mine came on the scene and were warned against any interference.

The workmen decided they would return home. The strikers marched with them back to Oliphant, shouting as they passed down the main street.

This was the first move towards shutting down the washeries in the valley, and if other men at work there do not come out there will be demonstrations of the same nature.

No violence was used at Grassy Island. The Delaware and Hudson company has fifty deputies on guard at its Rocket Brook washery, in Carbondale, today, some twenty men being at work there getting out coal. The large force of deputies was provided because of a reported threat that the place would be attacked by marchers today.

APPEAL FOR RELIEF.

Mount Carmel, Pa., Oct. 22.—The miners' relief committee of this place has issued a circular letter asking for contributions in aid of the striking miners of this district.

The committee asserts that while it hoped that the strike will be ended within a few days, this will not materially change the deplorable condition of the miners. It will be at least four weeks before those returning to work will receive any pay, and their families must be cared for in the interval.

The committee is not connected in any way with the United Mine Workers of America. Thomas H. Williams, the postmaster, is the president.

NO ONE WENT TO WORK.

Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 22.—The whistles of Cameron and Luke Fidler collieries, operated by the Mineral company, were blown this morning, but none of the striking miners returned to work.

None of the Reading company's operations in this portion of the coal region resumed.

FLIGHT OF THE EMPRESS

AN INTERESTING STORY IS BROUGHT FROM CHINA.

Escape of the Court From Pekin Forms One of Most Entrancing Stories of the Campaign.

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 22.—The Oriental liner Glenogle, which reached Tacoma last night, brings an interesting story of the flight of the empress dowager from Pekin. The escape of the court furnishes one of the most entrancing stories of the Chinese campaign. The Shanghai Mercury tells the story as follows:

"It appears that in accordance with the regular practice of the Chinese officials in similar cases, false reports of suppositious victories over the allies were persistently rendered to the palace, with the result that the court was lulled into a feeling of fancied security that is was not until the allies had actually entered the capital that the real facts became known to the empress and a rude awakening took place.

"On the early morning of the 15th of August the dowager, in company with the emperor, left the palace clothed in common Chinese cotton garments, traveling in an ordinary Chinese cart, and accompanied by an insignificant retinue. Such was the hurry of their departure that no money or valuables in any quantity were taken with them and for several days the imperial party is said to have suffered great hardships. The only food with which they were supplied was the common millet of the country, and at night they had to sleep in wayside inns on the rough brick kangs furnished for the accommodation of travelers.

"Among those who accompanied the court were Prince Tuan, Kang Ye and Wang Wenshao, and it is said that the empress, feeling sympathy with the latter on account of his age, urged him to return to his residence at the capital, but the old man begged with tears to be allowed to share in the exile of the court. The humiliating effect of this experience upon the proud Manchus can better be imagined than described and it has evidently inspired a desire for vengeance, as is indicated in the secret orders sent to Li Hung Chang for the recapture of Tien Tsin and Pekin, as well as by the tone of recent edicts.

"In the light of the above narrative the reference in the account given by the Sin Wen Hoa of the reported disgrace of Prince Tuan to the discomforts attending the flight from Pekin affords some circumstantial evidence of the accuracy of that account, and the fact that the same paper in its issue of this morning again refers to the empress' displeasure with the prince adds further weight to its previous statement."

A NEAT POLITICAL SCHEME

REPUBLICANS ATTEMPT TO TAKE SNAP JUDGMENT.

There are two candidates on the county ballots whose names are not expected to be thereon until late Saturday afternoon. Major G. W. Wilson has been named as a candidate for senator to fill the seat now occupied by George V. Kell. There has been some dispute as to whether the seat occupied by W. C. Ryan or Geo. V. Kell was vacant and the democrats had decided that Mr. Ryan, if anybody, would be ousted and nominated S. B. Fleming for the place. The republicans named no candidate. At 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, a minute or two before the county clerk's office closed, Judge Vesey stepped into the office and handed Clerk Belot a petition signed by twenty-five republicans requesting the name of G. W. Wilson be placed on the republican ticket as a candidate for senator from Allen county.

It appears the democrats had expected this. Mr. Belot accepted the republican petition with a smile and remarked that he had in his possession a petition for the placing of the name of George V. Kell on the democratic ticket, and immediately proceeded to file the Kell petition along with the Wilson petition. This means that the voters of this county will vote for two senators and the legislature will then determine which ones are entitled to seats in the state senate. The republicans had expected to catch the democrats napping and hoped for Mr. Wilson's election without opposition. The senate, being republican, would then have unseated Mr. Kell instead of Mr. Ryan and allowed Mr. Wilson to serve four years as senator. But in this they have been checkmated and Mr. Wilson may withdraw his name from the ticket.

VOCKE TO COME.

Chairman Berghoff will probably arrange for the big German demonstration of the campaign next Saturday evening, when William Vocke a prominent German educator and citizen of Chicago, will be here and address German citizens at Saengerbund hall. Hon. C. K. Ladd's assignment will probably be cancelled and the meeting given up entirely to the Germans. Mr. Vocke has always been a republican and on October 13 declared for Bryan.

AFTER JOE BAILEY.

An effort is being made by the democratic county committee to bring Hon. Joseph W. Bailey, of Texas, to Fort Wayne on the evening of November 2. Mr. Bailey has spoken in Fort Wayne and is a big favorite with local democrats.

LOCAL NEWS.

SHOP AND RAIL

BIG G4 PASSENGER ENGINES ARE COMING HERE.

WILL RUN ON DIVISION C

AND HAUL THE HEAVIEST TRAINS SINGLE HANDED.

NICKEL PLATE'S BIRTHDAY

IS EIGHTEEN YEARS OLD TODAY—BIT OF HISTORY.

The Fort Wayne-Crestline division of the Pennsylvania will soon have two of the big new G4A passenger engines in service. One of them arrived yesterday and is in the hands of Engineer Bailey Hedges, being "broken in," and another will arrive about Thursday. These massive engines are exactly like the big G4A freight engines put into service some months ago, with the exception of the drivers, which on the passenger engine are seventy-two inches in diameter, while those of the freight engine are only sixty-two inches. These new locomotives will haul trains 15 and 20 and 6 and 19. Crews have not been assigned.

WORKING FULL TIME AGAIN.

Every department of the Pittsburg shops is now running full time—sixty hours per week. For some weeks some of the departments had been running only fifty hours per week, but the work in the shop has increased to the extent that an increase in the working hours is also necessary.

DURNELL'S BIG CATCH.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Durnell have returned from West lake, where he did a little phenomenal fishing. Together with Charles Rekers and Harry Moritz, Mr. Durnell caught 116 small-mouthed black bass in two days, the lot weighing sixty-five pounds. There were other fish caught, but they were not considered worth saving and the string mentioned only included those fish brought home. Other fishermen report entirely different results of their outing at Rome City, some of them not even getting a bite.

FOREMAN MEYERS ENTERTAINS

Forty or fifty of the machinists at the Bass works enjoyed the hospitality of their foreman, H. W. Meyers, Saturday evening. It was an exclusive masculine affair, no ladies being present except when it came time to serve a most delicious lunch, which the ladies of the house had prepared. Pedro and music figured in the amusements, the guests meanwhile puffing fragrant Havanas, which were provided with characteristic generosity by the host. Mr. and Mrs. Meyers celebrated their silver wedding last Wednesday evening and the attendance was over a hundred. Many of the shopmen remained away that night in order that there might be plenty of room for the relatives and immediate friends of the family, and Saturday night's party was, therefore, a sort of an "overflow" meeting. It was a very enjoyable affair.

TRAIN KILLS A HORSE.

Pennsylvania train No. 19, second section, killed a horse belonging to Christian Hagerfeld, the Broadway grocer, at 6:45 Saturday evening. The driver left the animal standing on Rockhill street while he went in a house to deliver some goods. The horse walked away and was crossing the tracks when struck by the train. The wagon was demolished.

NICKEL PLATE'S ANNIVERSARY

On Monday, October 23, 1882, the first passenger train passed through this city over the Nickel Plate and the event was the occasion for some display of satisfaction with the situation on the part of Fort Wayne citizens. Hundreds of them assembled at the depot and many purchased tickets and rode down to New Haven, where the trains passed, merely for the honor of being one of the very first passengers on the road. The eighteen years that have elapsed since that day have brought wonderful changes to the road, not only in its physical condition, but to its official roster. Of the heads of the several departments only one remains unchanged. Charles E. Stapleford was then, as he is now, foreman of the car inspectors and car repairers, leaving a position on the Lake Erie and Western road to take this one. Other officers at the beginning of the road's existence were Superintendent Dwight, Superintendent of Motive Power Ross Kells, Master Mechanic Frank Boatman, Trainmaster Ed Hunsaker, Yardmaster Toby Search and Freight Agent F. H. Bernard. The company at the date mentioned did not have a regular passenger agent, it being then more interested in freight traffic, but an agency was established soon afterwards and Mr. Gardner was chosen for that office. S. K. Blair, the present trainmaster, was chief dispatcher in the early days. During the world's fair at Chicago the road put on some through passenger trains of up-to-date pattern and the experiment was so satisfactory that the service has been maintained since, securing a fair share of the patronage and constantly improving and increasing the service. It established a district passenger agency here, in addition to the local agency, a few years ago and this has also been found profitable. Charles A. Asterlin very efficiently fills that office, while R. J. Hamilton presides over the local office.

DYNOMETER CAR STARTS OUT.

The Pennsylvania dynometer car left this morning for the northern division of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, where some tests which will consume about ten days will be made. The tests will be in charge of J. J. Beugnot, Joseph Bursley and E. S. Turner, of this city.

BURNED HIS HAND.

C. W. Koenig, who is employed in the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, had the misfortune to have one of his hands severely burned Saturday evening. The accident will cause a loss of time, but no permanent injury will result.

SUCCEEDS HIS FATHER.

Charles W. Banta this morning assumed the office of foreman of the paint department of the eastern division of the Wabash, succeeding his father, the late Herman Banta, who was buried last Friday. Charles Banta learned his trade in that shop and has worked there for many years. For several years he was an assistant to the elder Banta and acted as foreman during the absence from the shops of that gentleman. The appointment was not a surprise, as everybody conceded the position to Mr. Banta. He is competent and popular, both with employer and employe, and the appointment seems to be regarded by all as the very best thing to do.

WILLIAM M'NUTT HURT.

William McNutt, a former citizen of Fort Wayne, was again the victim of a railway accident last week. He is now employed as a brakeman on the Baltimore and Ohio road, having headquarters at Garrett, Ind. While in the performance of his duty, he was caught in such manner that the skin and flesh was completely stripped from one of his heels. About eighteen months ago Mr. McNutt had an arm and leg fractured in a railway accident. He said at that time that he had enough of railroading and would engage otherwise in the future, but this resolution remained good only during the term of disability. As soon as well enough he returned to the road. Several of the men who went with the Tippecanoes to Garrett Saturday called to see Mr. McNutt.

BIG SHARE OF BAD LUCK.

John Guebard, a watchman for the Pennsylvania company at the Walton avenue yards, appears to be having more than his share of misfortune. Last year he fell and a train passed over his right arm, necessitating amputation at the elbow. Sunday evening while going home from work Mr. Guebard fell, striking his knee upon a rail, and cut a fearful gash in the knee. The injured man was assisted to his home at 28 Hurd street, where Dr. C. B. Stemen attended him. The accident will keep Mr. Guebard from work for some time.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Harry Beers, of the electric works, is laid up with a lame foot.

Supt. J. B. McKim, of the Pennsylvania, is attending a meeting of officials in Pittsburg today.

K. Vorndrau, W. M. Lackey and Ed J. Ryan, Pittsburg employes, are off duty on account of sickness.

Daniel Gleeson, a machinist, has taken a position with Foreman A. Kaiser at the electric works.

W. H. Sherbondy, chief electrician of the Pittsburg, is in Chicago on business in that connection today.

Next Sunday the Wabash will carry the Alice Neilson Opera company from Pittsburg to St. Louis on a special train.

The Pennsylvania officials, including General Manager L. F. Loree, who had been inspecting the Panhandle lines, passed through this city last Saturday evening. They came in over the Wabash and left over the Pennsylvania for Pittsburg.

Thomas W. Smith, who had a hand hurt in the Pittsburg smith shop last week, reported for work this morning.

D. Barley, of the Pittsburg lumber yards, is visiting in Warsaw. He made the trip to that city Saturday in his buggy.

J. H. Hilgerman, a construction man, is at home after a trip out in the interest of the Fort Wayne Electric company.

Alex Thavenau, a switchman on the Pittsburg transfer engine, reported for work this morning, after a three days 'absence.

E. Ryan, who was formerly engaged in business in the city, has taken a position in the Pittsburg lumber yards.

Saturday afternoon the Fort Wayne Electric company sent a dynamo to Norton, Mass., where a plant is to be installed.

Theodore Otten, a tinner who at present is engaged at his trade in Payne, Ohio, spent Sunday with his family in this city.

F. F. Whitley, general foreman of the Wabash shops at St. Thomas, Ont., was here to consult Master Mechanic G. S. McKee today.

Thomas Bandau, a boilermaker, has returned to work in the Wabash shops after working a few days in the company's shops at Ashley.

R. A. LaMar, F. A. Allison, F. M. Shambaugh and G. Meyers, of the Pittsburg shops, are off duty to look after some private business.

E. J. King, foreman of the laboratory department of the electric works, left Saturday evening for Boston, in the interest of the company.

Thomas Patton, a machinist, resumed work in Foreman Knothe's room, at the electric works, this morning, after a week's sickness.

Will Bergen, the ball player, and Edward Stephan resigned their positions in the electric works this morning, after a service of only a week or two.

Alonzo Swank has returned from Lake View, Mich., where he was engaged several days in making some repairs to a dynamo. He is a winder.

Foreman Hugh Hogan, who was sick a few days, resumed charge of the Pittsburg machine shop this morning. Apparently he is as well as ever.

E. R. Neely, day operator at the east yards of the Pittsburg, is sick and off duty and H. C. Burton, of Lima, is temporarily working in the office out there.

Machinist B. F. McFerran, who had an accident in the Pittsburg shops two weeks ago, has recovered and this morning resumed his place in that establishment.

Manager A. C. F. Wichman, of the Anthony Wayne Manufacturing company, who came here a few days ago to attend the wedding of his son, left for St. Louis this morning.

F. Hildebrand, who has worked in the Pittsburg lumber yards for some months, quit that position this morning for the purpose of returning to the country to engage in farming.

L. Sweeny, yard engineer, and C. H. Henline, road fireman, of the Pittsburg, are off duty, the former on account of sickness in his family and the latter on account of being sick.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Parry and children have returned from Detroit, where he was engaged several weeks in setting up a large gas plant for the Western Gas Construction company.

Henry Daseler, of the Pittsburg boiler shop, is kept from his work by sickness in his family. William Barman, who had been off duty for a similar reason, reported for work this morning, his wife having improved.

W. H. Tigar, chief dispatcher of the Pittsburg, and his family dined upon a nine and a half pound pickerel today. The fish was the present of Operator L. E. Barnes, who caught it Saturday in the lake near Hobart.

Mr. Germain, of Bloomington, Ill., who had been spending a week or two with his brother, Engineer Ross Germain, of the Nickel Plate, left for his home last evening. He is an engineer, also, and has a passenger run on the Chicago and Alton road, in and out of St. Louis.

F. G. Olds leaves tonight for Pittsburg to attend a meeting of the advisory board of the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association. The coming meeting is expected to be unusually interesting and the proceedings will be watched with interest by all members of the association.

LEADER OF REVOLT TAKEN

INSANE PRISONERS DASH FOR LIBERTY.

Desperate Break of a Score of Inmates of Mattewan Hospital in Newburg Sunday Night.

Newburg, N. Y., Oct. 22.—The all-night search for the seven maniacs who escaped last night from the Mattewan state hospital for the criminal insane has resulted in the capture of the leader, a notorious criminal named Patrick Geoghegan.

Two keepers came upon Geoghegan about Lows Point toward morning. The prison suit made him conspicuous at a distance and he was covered by the keepers' revolvers' before he knew he was discovered.

Eighteen of the regular keepers are on the trail of the other six convicts and they are calling on the police of the various towns for aid.

Keepers Cameron and Slack, who were most seriously injured in the bombardment with crockery and other missiles hurled by the mutineers, are doing well today.

After the patients had been given their supper last evening they were taken back to their apartments with their keepers. Among the number were fifteen or twenty who slept in one of the large corridors, where there were six or eight keepers. There were no suspicious movements on the part of the patients until suddenly and without warning each keeper was attacked simultaneously by two or three patients, and heavy blows fell on the heads of the surprised attendants. The keys held by the keepers were soon taken from them and a rush was made for the door.

As the patients passed through the dining room each one of them picked from the table a heavy plate, or cup, or bowl. From the dining room they went through the adjoining rooms, the doors of which were unlocked, and then into the large hall leading to the rear exit.

Through the yard they ran like deer and crowded around the big gate in the wall, while one of their number was turning the key in the lock. When the gate was thrown open they rushed out of the yard, fairly tumbling over each other in their anxiety to be free again.

In the meantime the keepers had recovered from the surprise given them by their assailants and gave an alarm. Chase was given across the hospital farm and all but seven of the patients were captured.

LEAGUERS VS. SHAMROCKS.

Columbia City Post: "South Whitley has bad blood in her eye and wants to hold great honors as a base ball town. Editor Miner, who loves to praise the little city, and some of his believers, have hired the Fort Wayne Inter-State league team to represent their town and will put this club against the Shamrocks next Thursday. No doubt but what South Whitley will again claim great honors even though they do not have a man in either team. Don't you want to see the sport?"

SUICIDE OF LOVERS.

Corry, Pa., Oct. 22.—Harry Bettis and Daisy Blydenburg, prominent young people, were found dead locked in each other's arms seated on a bench in Corry park this morning. They were lovers and it is supposed to have been a case of suicide. The girl was shot through the breast and the young man through the head He still held the revolver in his hand with two chambers empty.

A CHRISTMAS GIFT NEW ALL THE YEAR ROUND.

In choosing a Christmas gift what can afford more present or lasting pleasure than a subscription to The Youth's Companion? The delight with which it is welcomed on Christmas morning is renewed every week in the year.

Those who wish to present a year's subscription to a friend may also have The Companion's beautiful new "Puritan Girl" calendar for 1901 sent with it. This calendar reproduces in 12-color printings an ideal portrait of a Puritan maiden of Plymouth. In addition to this, all the issues of The Companion for the remaining weeks of 1900 are sent free from the time subscription is received for the new volume.

Those wishing to make a present of The Companion and mentioning it when subscribing will receive, in addition to the gifts offered above, a beautiful printed certificate of subscription to place among the presents on Christmas morning.

Illustrated announcements of the volume for 1901 sent with sample copies of the paper free to any address.

IAN MACLAREN.

Everybody has heard of the "Bonnis Briar Bush" and of its famous author, Dr. John Watson, or as he is better known, Ian Mac Laren. On a recent visit to this country, this great man said in Cincinnati, "The greatest agency for good in your country, as I see it, is your Sunday school." This is the verdict of a wise observer, who is not an American citizen, but sees American through the eyes of a foreigner. The judgment is just, however, for the Sunday school is doing more for America today than all the laws on her statute books. The International Sunday School convention seeks to promote through the state and provincial auxiliary organizations the interests of all Sunday school of all denominations. Circulars explaining the magnitude of this great work may be had for the asking by addressing Mr. Marion Lawrance, Toledo, O., secretary of the International convention.

LADIES ELECT OFFICERS.

The Fort Wayne district Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church held its annual convention at Auburn Thursday and Friday, electing officers as follows: President, Mrs. Carrie Schrader Gasaman, Fort Wayne; first vice president, Mrs. A. J. Neal, Angola; second vice president, Mrs. L. L. Cocking, New Haven; third vice president, Mrs. L. A. Beeks, Huntington; recording secretary, Mrs. S. Light, Bluffton; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. C. Jones, Auburn; treasurer, Mrs. T. R. Spalding, Fort Wayne; organizer, Mrs. S. Cobb, Auburn; superintendent of young people's work, Miss Julia Hodge, Auburn; superintendent of children's work, Mrs. E. B. Robinson, Fort Wayne. Pledges were taken for the support of thirteen India famine orphans for the ensuing year. There was a large attendance from Fort Wayne.

HIGH SCHOOL WON.

The Kendallville and Fort Wayne high school teams played a game of foot ball on Saturday afternoon at Centlivre park, and the contest resulted in a victory for the locals by a score of 23 to 0. The Fort Wayne boys were the superiors of their opponents in every way, and went through their line at will. Kendallville had the ball in their possession but twice during the entire game, and failed to make any headway against their opponents. The Fort Wayne boys have greatly improved during the past ten days under the able coaching of Dr. Jameson, and they confidently expect to defeat the Huntington team which plays here within a few weeks.

FOR THE OPEN DOOR

That Was the Closing Suggestion of America's Reply to the French Proposals.

CORRESPONDENCE MADE PUBLIC

Washington, Oct. 22.—The state department today made public the correspondence which has taken place between itself and the French government since the original French note respecting China, which laid down the terms suggested by France as a basis of negotiation for a settlement.

This last correspondence consists of two notes exchanged between Secretary Hay and M. Thiebaut last week, putting in formal shape certain verbal statements of importance respecting the negotiation.

An interesting and important feature of the United States note is the closing suggestion that the powers bind themselves again to preserve Chinese territorial integrity and to maintain the "open door," exactly the objects aimed in the British-German agreement or alliance which was made public last week.

While this note by Secretary Hay bears date of October 19th, and the British-German agreement is assigned the date of October 16th, the action of this government was taken in ignorance of the agreement and it is entirely possible that it may have been the means of bringing about a disclosure of its purposes.

Our suggestion indicates a favorable response by the United States government to the invitation to join with Great Britain and Germany in the objects specified.

The correspondence is as follows:

"(Correspondence, Chinese Affairs, October 17-19, 1900.)

"In further relation to the proposals of the government of the French republic respecting the bases for the settlement to be negotiated between the powers and the Chinese government.

"The French charge d'affairs to the secretary of state. (Handed the secretary of state by the French charge d'affaires, M. Thiebaut, October 17, 1900.)

"(Translation.)

"'Embassy of the French republic to the United States, Washington. October 17,1900—The government of the republic has highly appreciated the response which the government of the United States has made to its note of the 4th of October; it has been especially gratifying to it to observe the sentiment of sympathy for France which have been evidently inspired in that reply.

"'All the interested powers have adhered to the essential principle of the French note. In so far as concerns the points which have called forth comments on the part of certain cabinets, they could, it would seem, be discussed among the powers or between their diplomatic representatives at Pekin in the course of the negotiations, and receive such modifications as might be judged necessary in order to more surely and speedily attain the common end.

"'The essential thing now is to show the Chinese government, which has declared itself ready to negotiate, that the powers are animated by the same spirit; that they are decided to respect the integrity of China and the independence of its government; but that they are none the less resolved to obtain the satisfaction to which they have a right.

"'In this regard it would seem that if the proposition which has been accepted as the basis of negotiations were communicated to the Chinese plenipotentiaries by the ministers of the powers at Pekin, or in their name by their dean, this step would be of a nature to have a happy influence upon the determinations of the emperor of China and of his government.

"'It goes without saying that this collective step would in no wise interfere with the examination of the points in the French proposition to which the reservations made by certain governments relate.

"'The minister for foreign affairs would be priticularly happy to learn that this also wa sthe opinion of the president of the United States and of the honorable secretary of state, and that they have thought it opportune to send to the minister of the United States in Pekin instructions in this sense.'

"The Secretary of State to the French Charge d'Affaires (Sent to Mr. Thiebaut, Oct. 19, 1900.)

"'Memorandum in response to the memorandum in regard to the basis and conduct of negotiations for a settlement of pending questions between the powers and China delivered to the secretary of state by the French charge d'affaires, Oct. 17, 1900.

"'The government of the United States is gratified to learn that all the interested powers have adhered to the essential principle of the French note of Oct. 4, and trusts that such reservations as they have suggested will, like those mentioned in the reply of the United States, prove no embarrassment to the progress of the negotiation, in the course of which they can be frankly discussed with a view to a common agreement.

"'Holding as it does in accord with the French government, that the essential thing now is to prove to the Chinese government that the powers are ready to meet it in the path of peaceful negotiation, and that they are united in their repeatedly declared decision to respect the integrity of China and the independence of its government, while equally united in the resolve to obtain rightful satisfaction for the great wrongs they and their nations have suffered, this government has instructed its minister in Pekin to concur in presenting to the Chinese plenipotentiaries the points upon which we are agreed as the initial step towards negotiations and towards the re-establishment of the effective power and authority of the imperial government.

"'The government of the United States believes that the happy influence upon the determinations of the Chinese emperor and of his government which the government of the French republic anticipates as the result of this step would be still further induced if the powers were to include as part of their initial declaration a collective manifestation of their determination to preserve the territorial integrity and the administrative entirety of China, and to secure, for the Chinese nation and for themselves, the benefits of open and equal commercial intercourse between the Chinese empire and the world at large.

"'Department of State, Washington, Oct. 19, 1900.'"

OPINIONS OF AMERICANS.

New York, Oct. 22.—Oscar S. Strauss, minister to Turkey, said of the Anglo-German agreement respecting China, the terms of which have been made public:

"This agreement between Germany and England is substantially in the line of the policy instituted by our government under the open door agreement, and I regard it as the best and only possible solution of the Chinese situation. American diplomacy has gained such recognition as it never had before in the eyes of the world.

"Our government will not become a party to a formal agreement or convention which is outlined between Germany and England, but it can by an identical note make known its acceptance of the terms of such an agreement without binding itself to take joint action with those two powers should any one or more of the great European powers endeavor to partition China.

"Doubtless this convention between England and Germany would not have been made had it not been for their knowledge of our position regarding the open door and in the circular note issued in July by Secretary Hay. It is my opinion that this plan will solve the Chinese question, and with England, Germany and the United States practically agreed, the other nations will accept enthusiastically the same terms."

Prof. John Bassett Moore said:

"The policy of the United States in a grave crisis that has arisen in China was expressed in the circular issued by the secretary of state on July 3 last.

"Now, mark how closely Germany and England have followed along the path marked out by Secretary Hay.

"There have been other and great diplomatic victories to be credited to American statesmen, but it is certainly pleasant to dwell upon the fact that right at the close of the century we have pointed a sure way to free commerce and free seas."

JUROR SICK IN FERRELL CASE.

Marysville, Ohio, Oct. 22.—Owing to the illness of a juror, the trial of Rosslyn Ferrell, charged with killing Express Messenger Lane, was adExpress Messenger Lane was adjourned until tomorrow. Ferrell's mother and Miss Costello called today on Mrs. Lane. An affecting meeting followed:

VERDICT FOR THE DEFENDANT

MARTIN KRIDER FAILS TO GET DAMAGES

The circuit court jury, which spent all of last week listening to evidence and arguments in the case commenced by Martin Krider against Edward Kinnerk for alleged alienation of his wife's affections, retired Saturday afternoon and deliberated until 8 in the evening, when they agreed and handed a sealed verdict to the bailiff. The verdict was opened this morning by Judge O'Rourke, and was found to be in favor of the defendant. The demand was for $3,000. A. H. Bittinger and Judge Allen Zollars represented plaintiff and Henry Colerick and S. L. Somers were defendant's attorneys.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Vesey is today hearing evidence in a sensational divorce case. Philip Schmidt asks for a divorce from his wife, Eliza Schmidt, and the testimony is somewhat racy; in fact, so much so that Judge Vesey was compelled to protest against some questions asked. Colerick & Thomas and James E. Graham are attorneys in the case.

Emma Bessert has begun suit against her husband, Gustave Bessert, for support of herself and child. The demand is for $500. M. T. Stokes is attorney for plaintiff.

The election commissioners are preparing to receive bids for the printing of ballots to be voted for county and township offices. All of the tickets have been filed, the time for filing having expired last evening.

ZION'S CHURCH CELEBRATES

SPECIAL SERVICES MARK AN ANNIVERSARY.

Lutheran Congregation Rejoices Over Its Prosperity—Church Debt Is Reduced.

Zion's Lutheran church, at the corner of East Creighton avenue and Hanna streets, held special services Sunday marking the ninth anniversary of the dedication of its edifice, and three immense congregations demonstrated the interest shown in the occasion.

The anniversary sermon was delivered in the morning by the pastor, Rev. Ch. Luehr, who, in the course of his remarks, told of the past history of Zion's church and of its hopes for the future. In the afternoon special services were held for the children, and here the young people manifested their concern for the church by a splendid program. The evening sermon was delivered by Rev. Jacob Miller, of St. Paul's church, and the choir rendered special music of a very high order. During the day nearly $2,000 was contributed toward reducing the debt upon the building.

Dr. and Mrs. P. T. Henson, of Pleasureville, Ky., have returned home after a brief visit with their son, Rev. L. L. Henson, and family.

The two children of Mr. and Mrs. Lauer, of Wells street, who have been ill with lung trouble, are recovering.

IN WEST VIRGINIA

MR. BRYAN BEGINS SECOND TOUR OF STATE.

CATCHES HIS RUNAWAY CAR

IT GOT AWAY FROM HIM IN BUFFALO SATURDAY.

BIG MEETING IN HUNTINGTON

CROWD FROM THREE STATES GREETS CANDIDATE.

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 22.—William J. Bryan, after chasing his private car, the "Rambler," from Buffalo, succeeded in overhauling it at Kenova early today. Mr. Bryan reached Kenova by regular train shortly after midnight. Owing to the fact that he would find it impossible to cover the short distance between Huntington and Kenova without engaging a special conveyance, Colonel McGraw sent a special engine, with the "Rambler," to Kenova, so that when Mr. Bryan arrived all he had to do was to step from one sleeping car to another. As a consequence he lost little sleep and the West Virginia party found him this morning thoroughly rested and quite prepared for the day's work.

Mr. Bryan was entertained at breakfast in this city by Judge Harvey.

At 10 o'clock Mr. Bryan made in this city the first speech of his second West Virginia tour. From the surrounding counties thousands of visitors had poured into the city. Ohio and Kentucky were also represented in the crowd. Mr. Bryan talked from a stand gaily decorated with the national colors erected on a vacant block. Rain began to fall about 9 o'clock, but the great majority of the audience remained to hear Mr. Bryan, who was received with loud applause. Judge Holt presided. Taking up the full dinner pail argument Mr. Bryan attacked the theory that a well supplied table could meet all the demands of working people. Referring to Governor Roosevelt's recent visit to this city, he said:

"I understand that you had a parade here and a man was carrying a bucket in the parade and someone asked him if his dinner pail was full. He said, 'No, it is empty, and I had twice as much as it worth then.' You will find lots of men who have the same complaint."

In connection with the discussion of the question of government by injunction Mr. Bryan quoted an extract from an article alleged to have been written for the Review of Reviews by Governor Roosevelt, in September, 1896, and continued:

"The laboring men who are opposed to government by injunction can here find what opinion the republican party has of you as stated by the man who now represents the republican party as its candidate."

Mr. Bryan then quoted Governor Roosevelt as writing "the men who object to what they style 'government by injunction, are, as regards the essential principles of government, in hearty sympathy with their remote skin-clad ancestors, who lived in caves, fought one another with stone axes and ate the mammoth and wooly rhinoceros."

Commenting on this, Mr. Bryan said:

"I want to ask you whether you expect any relief from government by injunction from people that say any man who is opposed to government by injunction ought to be classed with the man who ate the wooly rhinoceros. The democratic party is opposed to government by injunction. The democratic party believes that right of trial by jury is a sacred thing and that if you can give it to the meanest thief and the blackest murderer, you ought to give it to the laboring man as well."

Mr. Bryan discussed the trusts at length, referring as usual to the ice trust.

Referring to the question of imperialism, Mr. Bryan declared that the republican party cannot defend it and is therefore saying there is no such thing.

Discussing our title to the Philippines, Mr. Bryan said we had none that is legitimate.

"Forty years ago," he said, "the republican party was contending that you could not buy a black man for $1,000. Now they are willing to buy brown men in job lots at $2.50 apiece."

He closed with an appeal to the people of this country not to further complicate the race question of this country by adding any more alien people to our population.

STEVENSON IN MICHIGAN.

Detroit, Oct. 22.—Adlai E. Stevenson, democratic nominee for vice president, arrived in Detroit today from Chicago and after taking breakfast with National Committeeman Campau, left on a three days' speaking tour of Michigan.

Mr. Stevenson said he was feeling splendidly and was very confident of democratic success.

"I was particularly impressed," said he, "by the enthusiasm shown by the New York voters."

During his trip through the state Mr. Stevenson will speak in eleven different cities.

LAKESIDE LINE IS FINISHED

TRACK IMPROVEMENTS HAVE COST $15,000.

The Fort Wayne Traction company has completed its track improvements on the Lakeside line and beginnig this morning the Lewis street cars resumed their old schedule, running through from Walton avenue to Delta lake without the transfer necessary while the work of relaying track was under way. Manager Scott stated this morning that the cost of the new improvement on the Lakeside line had been $15,000.

Another work which the traction company has just taken up is the rebuilding of the old Belt line cars, which went out of service when the new and larger cars were placed on the line some months ago. The old cars are being thoroughly rebuilt and equipped for use on other lines, and when they come from the shops the public will be unable to recognize them as those which formerly made the circuit of the Belt line.

They are to be exact models of the present Belt line cars. Each car is cut in twain and a section inserted in the center which will bring it out to the desired length, the cane upholstered seats will replace those formerly in use, and the vestibules will be lowered to conform to the design of the newer cars. Manager Scott says that the present Belt line design is the most perfect and satisfactory street car in service, and during the past summer it was demonstrated that a vast majority of people preferred them to the summer cars. They are easier of access, comfortable in appointment and with large windows open answer every purpose of the open car. In fact, the public preference is so pronounced that the company has decided to have the rebuilt cars conform in every way to the newer models.

NEW HAVEN ELMS DYING.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 22.—The report of the special commission of citizens appointed to investigate the condition of the elm trees in the city has just been handed in. It shows that through various causes New Haven is rapidly losing the fine elms that have made the city famous, and that in a few years, unless something is done, the traditional city of elms will be only a name. Hundreds of them are dying off each year now and in windstorms are blown down. The mayor is advised by the commissioner to spray the elm trees regularly with beetle-killing substances, to plant new and strong trees in place of the old ones and to employ a skilled forester.

MISTOOK HIM FOR A DEER.

Bangor, Maine, Oct. 22.—The second fatal shooting accident of the season in the Maine woods occurred at Nahmakanta lake Thursday, when W. L. Pond, of Torringford, Conn., was instantly killed by his companion, Willey M. Latimer, of Torringford, who mistook him for a deer. They were hunting a little way apart and Pond made a rustling noise among some bushes. Latimer heard the noise and, thinking it was made by a deer, fired in the direction of the bushes without stopping to investigate. A cry of pain followed the shot and Latimer rushed to the spot only to find his companion dead.

SHAMROCKS WON.

The Fort Wayne Shamrocks played the Greens at South Bend yesterday and the Fort Wayne boys won by a score of 4 to 3. This was the last game of the season for the Greens, but the Shamrocks will play at South Whitley next Thursday.

JOHN SHERMAN DEAD

A LONG AND EMINENT CAREER

Washington, Oct. 22.—Hon. John Sherman, former representative in the house, for a long term a member of the senate, and twice holding cabinet positions, died at his residence in this city at a quarter before seven o'clock this morning, in the seventy-eighth year of his age.

His death had been expected for some days and loving friends gave him their unremitting care and attention to the end. The immediate cause of death was described as brain exhaustion, incident to extreme weakness, due to old age and to several attacks of sickness from which he had suffered for the past year and a half.

Since Saturday afternoon Mr. Sherman had been for the most time unconscious, rallying partially at intervals when some slight nourishment was given him.

REMAINED UNCONSCIOUS.

Yesterday afternoon evidences of the approaching end were manifest and he has failed to regain consciousness after 3 o'clock, passing away peacefully just after dawn broke. About 1 o'clock this morning he rallied somewhat from the stupor and turned himself over in bed, but after that he gradually sank until the end came.

During the day and evening a number of inquiries were made at the house concerning the condition of the sick man, President McKinley being among those who sent to ask about him.

Several days ago, realizing the critical condition of Mr. Sherman, the members of the household and relatives here sent telegrams to a large number of the family connections throughout the country notifying them of his extreme illness and some were able to reach here before he died.

FRIENDS AT BEDSIDE.

Most of those who arrived were at the bedside when the end came, the number including Mr. and Mrs. Colgate Hoyt, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wiborg, of Cincinnati; Mrs. William K. Otis, of New York City; P. Trumseh Sherman, a son of the late General Sherman; Charles M. Sherman, of Chicago, and Miss Lizzie Sherman.

Others who were at the bedside were Mrs. James McCallum, the adopted daughter, who had been his constant attendant, and her husband.

General and Mrs. Miles, the latter a niece of Secretary Sherman, were at the house the greater portion of the day and evening, but left for their home shortly after midnight. They were summoned when it was apparent that the end was near and reached the house a few minutes after the venerable statesman had passed away.

Secretary Sherman's demise occurred in the handsome home on K street, which he had erected eight years ago. It is a large double structure with white stone front, and with the hall running through the middle.

The house faces on Franklin Square, the prettiest reservation and park in the capital city. Some weeks ago he deeded this valuable property to Mrs. McCallum.

OWNED MUCH REAL ESTATE.

The secretary was a large holder of real estate in this city, having invested extensively in that line from time and time during his residence here. Conservative estimates of his wealth place it at a round million dollars, most of which is believed to consist of Washington real estate.

Other investments consist of securities and it is stated that the old family home at Mansfield, Ohio, remained in his possession, notwithstanding reports that he had disposed of it prior to his return to Washington last month.

Arrangements for the funeral will be completed today. As tentatively determined they contemplate service both at the residence in this city and at Mansfield, where the interment will be made in the family burial ground, beside the body of Mrs. Sherman, who died early in the summer.

FUNERAL TUESDAY.

The services here will be held probably on Tuesday afternoon, the remains to lie at the house after their conclusion until in the evening, when they will be put on a special train for Mansfield, leaving here at 8 o'clock. Some time ago Secretary and Mrs. Sherman occupied a pew in the Epiphany church here, but in later years the secretary had no church affiliations. It is expected that Rev. Mackay-Smith, of St. John's Episcopal church, or Rev. Dr. Aspinwall, of St. Thomas' Episcopal church, of this city, will be asked to conduct the funeral services.

Arriving at Mansfield on Wednesday the remains will lie in state in the Episcopal church in that city until the following day, when the interment will take place.

LONG IN POOR HEALTH.

Mr. Sherman had not been in robust health for considerably over a year. In March, 1899, while on a pleasure trip to the French and Spanish West Indias, in company with a relative, Frank Wiborg, he suffered a severe attack of pneumonia which almost proved fatal. The ship on which they were traveling touched at Santiago, from which place reports came to the United States that the well known statesman had succumbed to the disease. He rallied, however, and the family accepted the offer of the United States government to bring him back to the United States on the Cruiser Chicago, then in the vicinity of Cuba, and he was safely landed at Fort Monroe and brought to his home in this city. Here he gained strength and was strong enough by summer to visit his home in Ohio. His remarkable vitality brought him through a relapse which he suffered during the heated term and by autumn he had regained his strength and seemed to be in good spirits. He spent last winter at his home in this city enjoying fairly good health, occasionally going out to social affairs and attending the theater with the members of his family. The family left here early in the spring for the old homestead at Mansfield, Ohio.

WIFE'S DEATH A HARD BLOW.

They were there but a short time when Mrs. Sherman, whose health had been very frail, died. This was a severe blow to the secretary, from which he never fully recovered. He remained at Mansfield until the middle of September, when he returned to Washington.

The secretary was very much broken in health and spirits, but for a time was able to move about in the open air and to take short rides around the city. For the past three weeks or more, however, he had been confined to his bed, his general debility being aggravated by an irritating bronchial cough that hastened the end.

Among Mr. Sherman's former associates in the senate his demise will be sincerely felt without reference to party. In this field of activity his services has been particularly able and successful. He had served so long that experience added to his natural talents.

He was a recognized master of all the great public questions, past and present, and he had at his fingers' ends all the arrayal of facts, figures

PHILIP ARANTZ IS NO MORE

WELL KNOWN CITIZEN DIED AT MIDNIGHT.

Had Reached the Age of 81 Years—Other Deaths and Funerals in Fort Wayne.

Philip Arantz, an old and well-known citizen of Fort Wayne, died at midnight at his home, 58 East Washington street, at the advanced age of 81 years. The end was not unexpected, as the patient had been gradually sinking for some days, and the once rugged constitution, now enfeebled by the weight of years, was unable to rally against the encroaching weakness. Mr. Arantz's illness dates from July last when he was injured by a fall. Complications developed and on several occasions his condition became so alarming that friends were prepared for the worst. The patient rallied, however, and his children, who had been summoned from distant homes left the bedside with encouragement for the father's recovery. A week ago, however, Mr. Arantz suffered a relapse, and his decline was gradual until Sunday night, when the feeble spark of life went out.

Mr. Arantz was born in Lebanon, Pa., July 17, 1819. Here he grew to manhood and engaged in the hardwood lumber business, with which he was prominently identified for many years. He removed to Fort Wayne in March, 1866, and in the course of his business career owned and operated sawmills at Churubusco, Larwill and Logansport. Twenty-five years ago, however, he retired from active business life.

At Harrisburg, Pa., in 1848, Mr. Arantz was united in marriage to Miss Rebecca Zweier, and to them were born eight children, all of whom, together with the widow, survive. The children are George, Frank, Anthony and John Arantz, who reside at Decatur, Ala., and are engaged in the lumber business; William Arantz, of Indianapolis, Simon Arantz, Miss Emma Arantz and Mrs. Charles Beuret, of this city. Mr. Arantz was a devoted member of the Cathedral congregation, and was universally respected and esteemed.

Funeral services will be held from the Cathedral Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock, and requiem high mass will be solemnized by Very Rev. J. H. Guendling.

YAHNE.

George Yahne, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Yahne, of 54 Force street, died Sunday afternoon from inflammation of the bowels at the age of 3 months.

Funeral services will be held from the residence Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Ruhl will officiate.

GALLMEIER.

Helena Gallmeier, aged 14 months, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Gallmeier, of 45 Guthrie street, died at 6 o'clock Sunday evening from inflammation of the bowels. The bereaved father is city salesman for the Mayflower mills.

Funeral services will be held from the residence Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Wambsganss officiating.

AUER.

Agnes Bertha Auer, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Auer, died Sunday evening at the family residence, 49 East Williams street, from brain fever at the age of 9 months.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the residence and at 1:30 from St. Peter's Catholic church.

DROEGE.

Mrs. Louise Droege, wife of Ferdinand Droege, died at her home in Monmouth Saturday from blood poisoning at the age of 38 years. The husband and two sons, aged 9 and 12 years respectively, survive. Mrs. Droege was a sister of Mrs. William Reiter and Mrs. Christian Rippe, of this city.

The funeral services were held today.

REUNION OF EIGHTY-EIGHTH.

The annual reunion of the Eighty-eighth Indiana regiment will be held at Butler, Ind., on Wednesday and a number of old soldiers from this city will attend the meeting. This is the first time the old Eighty-eighth has held a reunion in Butler, and the citizens of that thriving little town are making big preparations for the event and will give the "boys" a grand reception. They have extended an invitation to the veterans of the civil and Spanish-American wars to attend the reunion. The survivors of the old regiment will go from here over the Grand Rapids to LaOtto on Wednesday morning, although some expect to go over the Lake Shore on Tuesday.

BOUND OVER FOR LARCENY

THOMAS HILLS CHARGED WITH STEALING OVERCOAT.

Brought Back From Chicago by Superintendent Gorsline—Police Court Notes.

Thomas Hills was arraigned in mayor's court this morning to answer a charge of larceny, he having been accused of stealing an overcoat from James McElfatrick. He was also charged with having stolen two saddles from the recently organized cavalry company. Superintendent Gorsline went to Chicago Saturday and arrested Hills in a saloon, where he was tending bar. He was brought back Saturday night. He admitted having taken one of the saddles, which he sold for $1 to a livery man. For this he settled. The mayor heard the evidence and bound Hills over to the circuit court for trial, fixing his bond at $500.

POLICE NEWS.

Two vagrants, arrested by Detective Cooling and Officer Spillner were arraigned in police court. Mayor Scherer ordered one of the fellows to leave the city and the other, who acted suspiciously, was held pending an investigation.

Sam Rogers was arrested by Officer Heller for drunkenness. While intoxicated Rogers entered a yard in Bloomingdale and stole a number of flower pots, which the police returned to the owner. The mayor fined him $5 and costs.

Another drunk, arrested by Officer Romy, was sent to jail for eleven days.

IN HIS OWN STATE

ROOSEVELT BEGINS CANVASS OF NEW YORK.

A LONG CAMPAIGN AHEAD

WILL SWING ALL ROUND THE EMPIRE STATE.

LAST DAY ON LONG ISLAND

DECLARES REPUBLICANS ARE GOING TO WIN.

New York, Oct. 22.—With the intention of traveling 2,146 miles, almost all of it within the confines of New York state and outside of the "Greater city" boundaries, and with the purpose of delivering ninety-three speeches ranging from seven minutes to two hours in duration, Gov. Theodore Roosevelt, candidate for vice president on the republican ticket, left Weehawken by special train on the West Shore railroad this morning at 11 o'clock. The day's close will find him at Kingston. Tomorrow he climbs to the apex of the Catskills, descending on the other side of the range into the Susquehanna valley. From there he runs up and touches at points along the Mohawk, and then way out to Watertown on the north and back to Auburn in central New York. Striking Syracuse on Thursday night he comes down the Mohawk and Hudson valley, reaching New York city on Friday night prepared to talk to many meetings. Saturday following he will rush along the Erie road, reaching Binghampton that night, and remaining over Sunday. The following week will find him at every place of importance in western New York and back in New York city on Saturday, November 3.

Monday, November 5, the day before election, will find him making a tour of Long Island and finishing his flying canvass of the state.

Governor Roosevelt arrived at the West Shore depot at 10:50 o'clock, accompanied by his secretary, William J. Youngs; Walter Emerson, of Maine; Job E. Hedges, James R. Sheffield, Arthur Von Brieson, J. S. Whipple and ex-Senator John Laughlin.

The governor was escorted to the train, which consisted of a dining car, a parlor car, the private car of the governor, and an ordinary day coach. As Governor Roosevelt stepped on the platform of his car there were cries of "Speech, speech."

The governor turned around, uncovered, and said to the crowd:

"My throat is not in good condition for me to say much, but I will say a few words. We are going to knock them out on the 6th."

As the train pulled out of the yard the governor was cheered by the dispersing crowd.

DEFINES THE ISSUE.

West Nyack, N. Y., Oct. 22.—"Hurrah for Bryan," shouted a man in the small crowd of people that greeted the Roosevelt special train at Congers, the first stop.

"Why don't you hurrah for Aitgeld or Aguinaldo?" retorted Governor Roosevelt, and the man subsided, while the crowd cheered and waved its flags.

Governor Roosevelt divided the ten minutes' stop with James A. Whipple, of this place. The governor's voice was good and he made himself plainly heard. He said in part:

"I am now back again in my own state, and I come to appeal to you, whose representative at Albany in the executive chamber I have been for two years, to stand by the cause of civic honesty, of civic decency, of national prosperity and national honor.

"You have been asked by our opponents at different times what were the paramount issues in this campaign. I can tell you. The paramount issue for the whole nation is, once for all the most important issue is, stamping under foot Bryanism. And with this goes the only less important issue of stamping under foot Crokerism.

"Bryanism means somewhat different things in different places, but fundamentally it means an appeal to the lowest passions, to those qualities that in the last analysis are most dangerous to the welfare of the people, whether it is Pettigrewism in South Dakota; Altgeldism smelling of anarchy and bomb throwing in Illinois; Goebelism, which means fraud of the ballot in Kentucky, or Crokerism, with all that it calls up of the reign of Tammany Hall in New York, of blackmailed vice and people fattening on the iniquities of a great city, and I ask you to save the nation from all the material woe and the shame and disgrace, to save the state from being dragged down to the level to which Tammany Hall has dragged the city of New York. I ask you to compare the nation as it stands with what Mr. Bryan prophesied four years ago, and to compare the government of New York state with the government of New York city, and then make up your minds if you are willing to desert the state and turn it over to the rule of Tammany Hall."

ROOSEVELT'S QUIET SABBATH.

New York, Oct. 22.—Governor Roosevelt spent yesterday at his home at Oyster Bay, quietly resting from his labors after his trip through the west. He received no visitors at all, except his private secretary, William J. Youngs, in the afternoon. The governor did not go to church, and Mr. Youngs explained the refusal to see any one on the ground that every moment that could be stolen from the campaign must now be taken advantage of in order to save the candidate's strength. The governor is in fine condition. He is suffering from his throat somewhat, but not to such a great extent as was feared. The strain on the vocal chords has strengthened them after making them sore, and the governor's voice is now in far better condition than after less work during the last state campaign.

THE PROHIBITION SPECIAL.

New York, Oct. 22.—The prohibition special train arrived at Jersey City last night at 8 o'clock, having made the run from Philadelphia and rested all night on a siding at the Pennsylvania depot. Owing to the fact that the Pullman cars which constitute the special are too high to pass under the bridges on the New York, New Haven and Hartford road, John G. Woolley and party will be obliged to travel on regular trains for two days, while the special is sent around to Boston over the Boston and Albany road, where it will be met on Wednesday.

Volney B. Cushing and Samuel Dickie left at 8 o'clock this morning to conduct a forenoon rally at Bridgeport, Conn., which was the first scheduled stop of the day. The remainder of the party leave New York today for Hartford, where tonight's meeting will be held. Mr. Woolley will stop off at Bridgeport to address the afternoon meeting there, after which he will proceed to Hartford for the evening rally. Another special train will meet the party at Providence, R. I., Tuesday, which will convey them to Boston.

SIX KILLED IN A TORNADO.

Atlanta, Texas, Oct. 22.—A tornado struck about half a mile west of Lodi and fifteen miles west of here at 7 o'clock last evening. The path of the tornado was 200 yards wide and the wind swept everything before it. One house in the center of its path, occupied by colored people, was destroyed, six persons being killed outright, and three others are missing who are supposed to be dead. The cyclone traveled from the southwest to the northwest, crossing the Texas and Pacific railroad at Campbellsville Spur, a lumber-loading station two miles north of Lodi. The lumber was carried in all directions. It is feared further loss of life has resulted out in the country. A hard rain fell here all morning, commencing about 7 o'clock, with light hail at 7:15 o'clock. The result will be considerable damage to the cotton crop remaining ungathered in this section.

THE TANK LET GO

EXPLOSION AT THE BERMUDEZ PAVING PLANT.

AN ACCUMULATION OF GAS

WRECKED STEEL COVER OF AGITATING MACHINE.

SHOCK SHOOK RESIDENCES

CAUSED MUCH EXCITEMENT, BUT ALL ESCAPED INJURY.

A large steel tank in use at the plant of the Bermudez Asphalt Paving company, just south of the Pennsylvania tracks at the western extremity of Wall street, exploded with frightful force about 8:30 o'clock this morning, throwing wreckage high in the air and producing a report loud enough to be heard in every part of the city. The force of the detonation was sufficient to perceptibly shake residences in the western part of the city and for a time the wildest commotion prevailed. The fortunate part of the affair is that no person was injured.

The Fort Wayne plant of the Bermudez company is but a temporary one, located near the gravel pit south of the Pennsylvania tracks, and it has only been in operation during the past summer. Here the asphalt is mixed, boiled and prepared for laying upon the streets, and quite a large gang of men is constantly at work about the place.

THE TANK LET GO.

An important part of the machinery is a large steel tank, perhaps eight feet square, and technically known as the "agitator." It is closed up much after the fashion of a steam boiler and inside are rapidly revolving fans which thoroughly mix the asphalt with oil. Out of the tank the mixture is forced by compressed air pressure, the air being supplied by a powerful pump.

This morning while the workman in charge was absent for a short time the agitator tank became empty and an instant accumulation of explosive gas was the result. The pump was still forcing air into the chamber at a lively rate and the combined force of the gas and the air proved sufficient to force off the cover of the tank. This was a circular piece of iron, one inch in thickness, and securely bolted to the tank. It was shattered into countless pieces and hurled a hundred feet into the air, taking with it the temporary roof of corrugated iron which sheltered the machinery.

For a moment there was a panic among the workmen, but none were struck by the falling debris, and the machinery was quickly shut down. Some of the wreckage had been thrown more than a hundred feet from the plant, and it is almost miraculous that some one was not injured. Within a short time quite a crowd of people who had heard the report and felt its shock in their homes hurried to the scene. Rattling windows and jarring of the houses had served to create considerable excitement that permeated pretty nearly the entire west end of the city.

Operatives at the plant say they never knew of a similar circumstance and it will be some time before the damage can be repaired. In the meantime the force has resumed work, but is compelled to mix the asphalt by hand and dip it from the boiling vats with buckets, a process much slower than by the use of the agitator which exploded.

PALE WOMEN

A Bloodless Face Indicates Trouble.

Watery Blood a Menace to Health.

WE KNOW HOW PALE PEOPLE CAN GET RICH RED BLOOD.

COME AND LET US TELL YOU ABOUT VINOL.

When blood is watery and thin, or, as doctors would say, lacks red blood corpuscles, it is a sign that much is radically wrong.

We would advise everyone who has such symptoms to start at once to take a proper remedy to overcome this trouble.

That remedy is Vinol, the greatest and most modern tonic and rebuilder.

Vinol owes its virtue to the fact that it contains in a highly concentrated state the active curative principles extracted from cods' livers, the same elements that have made cod-liver oil famous for wasting diseases.

These medicinal elements are dissolved in a delicious table wine so that Vinol is most palatable.

None of the vile-smelling obnoxious grease that characterizes cod-liver oil and frequently makes it an impossible remedy for those who should take it, is found in Vinol.

We could relate many instances where Vinol has done good and restored the roses of health to the pale cheeks of the sufferer.

"For several months I suffered lassitude and tired all the time. Also a sinking feeling in my stomach, which nothing would relieve, and I was pale and weak. As an experiment I tried Vinol and if I wrote pages I could not tell all it has done for me."—Mrs. A. K. La Prusch, Amesbury, Mass.

Because we know Vinol so well, and because we know so surely what it will do, and how it will accomplish the good it does in a scientific way, we unreservedly endorse and recommend it, and in every instance guarantee to refund to any one what they pay us for Vinol if they do not find it entirely satisfactory.

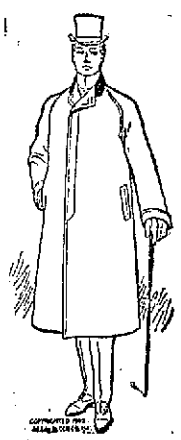
ARE YOU SUITED?



If not, let us suit you with one of our high-grade suits. We have won the young men by giving them nothing but well-tailored garments. The coat to every suit we sell at $10 to $25 will be hand-padded with hand-felled seams, and nothing but the best shrunken canvass is used in our garments so that the coat is bound to keep its shape. Other may advertise well tailored suits, but ask yourself—"do they have the style and keep their shape like a Patterson suit?" THINK IT OVER BEFORE YOU BUY. We have sold and are selling the best tailored suits made, and if you have not worn one want you to enlist in our army this fall.

CATARRH

Catarrh has become such a common disease that a person entirely free from this disgusting complaint is seldom met with. It is customary to speak of Catarrh as nothing more serious than a bad cold, a simple inflammation of the nose and throat. It is, in fact, a complicated and very dangerous disease; if not at first, it very soon becomes so.

The blood is quickly contaminated by the foul secretions, and the poison through the general circulation is carried to all parts of the system.

Salves, washes and sprays are unsatisfactory and disappointing, because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. does. It cleanses the blood of the poisons and eliminates from the system all catarrhal secretions, and thus cures thoroughly and permanently the worst cases.

Mr. P. H. McAllister, of Harrodsburg, Ky., writes: "Having been a terrible sufferer from Catarrh, and being now sound and well, the question often put to me is, 'What cured you?' In answer I feel it my duty to state that Swift's Specific is the medicine. I am such a true believer in the efficacy of Swift's Specific that I can honestly and conscientiously recommend it to any one suffering from Catarrh. Have recommended it to many and am happy to say that those whom I have induced to use it can bear me out in the statement that it will cure any case of Catarrh if taken according to directions."

SSS is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the greatest of all blood medicines and tonics.

If you have Catarrh don't wait until it becomes deep-seated and chronic, but begin at once the use of S. S. S., and send for our book on blood and skin diseases and write our physicians about your case.

SECOND ONLY TO BRITAIN.

London, Oct. 20.—A quarterly returns has been issued by Lloyds, showing that the United States at the end of the last quarter had, next to Great Britain, the largest tonnage in shipping under construction. This return is attracting much attention and the Statist publishes a long article, in the course of which it points out that the actual and prospective developments of ship building in America is even much greater than might be inferred from Lloyd's report. The Statist considers that the impetus to ship building given by cheap materials and the large demand for tonnage will receive further stimulus from the marketing of American coal abroad, which, the paper says, is one of the most remarkable economic evolutions of our time. The Statist expects that Americans will shortly solve the problem of evolving a type of trans-Atlantic colliers able, like tank steamers, to deliver cargoes in European ports without expecting return cargoes. It thinks that this great coal export trade will prove a powerful stimulus to the shipping subsidies bill and lays stress upon the recrudescence of ship building in New England as an important new departure in ocean competition which may be expected to expand rapidly.

HOT WATER AS A COSMETIC.

Far better for the complexion than any cosmetic compounded by a perfumer is the application of very hot water to the face with a woolen washrag. A matron of fifty whose charms are the envy of those of her acquaintances of half her years has used this application many years. "Every night and morning," she says, "I give my face a thorough washing with a piece of white flannel in hot water. Once in a great while I use soap, but not often, as I have found the hot water, persistently used, very satisfactory. If the skin has not been exposed to a great amount of dust the water may be merely sopped upon the face at night, as once a day is often enough for the scrub. After the hot bath dash on a liberal quantity of cold water with the hands until the skin fairly glows. This is the cheapest and most wonderful cosmetic known. A month of such treatment will transform any complexion, coarse and muddy. I tried many remedies, but they were very unsatisfactory, until one day an old lady whose skin I always had admired for its youthful appearance, gave me her recipe. I tried it faithfully and before long saw with delight that my complexion was clearing."

DEGREES OF FLIRTATION.

"The avarice of man feeds upon the wrecks of industry and enterprise," said the Crafty Citizen. "Most men neglect opportunities to build up their own business in order to tear down the interests of their rivals."

"I have noticed, also," said the Inveterate Thinker, "that man's vanity feeds upon the wrecks of woman's happiness. I have known men to leave their wives sitting alone in the hotel parlor while they go out and purr among glib women on the verandah. The commercial flirtation is not the first degree offense."—Denver News.

FOR THE CHILDREN.

To Keep Their Digestion Perfect Nothing is so Safe and Pleasant as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Thousands of men and women have found Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the safest and most reliable preparation for any form of indigestion or stomach trouble.

Thousands of people who are not sick, but are well and wish to keep well, take Stuart's Tablets after every meal to insure perfect digestion and avoid trouble.

But it is not generally known that the Tablets are just as good and wholesome for little folks as for their elders.

Little children who are pale, thin and have no appetite, or do not grow or thrive, should use the tablets after eating and will derive great benefit from them.

Mrs. G. H. Crotsley, 536 Washington St., Hoboken, New Jersey, writes: Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets just fill the bill for children as well as for older folks. I've had the best of luck with them. My three-year-old girl takes them as readily as candy. I have only to say "tablets" and she drops everything else and runs for them.

A Buffalo mother a short time ago who despaired of the life of her babe was so delighted with the results from giving the child these tablets that she went before the notary public of Erie Co., N. Y., and made the following affidavit:

Gentlemen:—Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets were recommended to me for my two-months-old baby, which was sick and puny and the doctors said was suffering from indigestion. I took the child to the hospital, but there found no relief. A friend mentioned the Stuart Tablets and I procured a box from my druggist and used only the large sweet lozenges in the box and was delighted to find they were just the thing for my baby. I feel justified in saying that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets saved my child's life.

MRS. W. T. DETHLOPE.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of April, 1897.

HENRY KARIS,
Notary Public in and for Erie Co., N. Y.

For babies, no matter how young or delicate, the tablets will accomplish wonders in increasing flesh, appetite and growth. Use only the large sweet tablest in every box. Full sized boxes are sold by all druggists for 50 cents, and no parent should neglect the use of this remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles if the child is ailing in any way regarding its food or assimilation.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been known for years as the best preparation for all stomach troubles whether in adults or infants.

AGED BROTHERS ARE UNITED.

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Seventy-seven years ago, at the death of their mother, Allen and Reuben Brownell were separated, Allen having been adopted by a neighbor's family who moved south immediately afterward. Saturday Reuben Fenno Brownell, of Berlin, Wis., a traveling salesman, entered the town of Newark for the first time and seeing a sign with the name Brownell over a grocery store entered. The brothers, now eighty-eight and seventy-seven years of age, knew each other immediately and the meeting was a most joyful one. For years each brother had tried in vain to obtain some trace of the other.

Mothers, be sure and use "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for your children while cutting teeth. It is the best remedy of all. MaySeod&w

Perry Heath will evidently have to call in for revision his latest romance, "How Mark Settled the Coal Strike."

The comforting thing about making an election forecast is that you can make it go any way you want it to go. It enthuses friends and annoys the enemy with equal facility. But it influences no votes.

Senator Hoar says trusts are not cancers, but only boils. There's mighty little relief in the odds. A boil is worse than a cancer when it multiplies itself, continually breaking out in some new place and never getting well in the old.

Since his trip into the northwest Senator Hanna has modestly transferred South Dakota and Nebraska from the democratic to the republican column. He is coming into Indiana to lift this state from the doubtful list, though he must do so over the protest of Governor Mount.

Prof. Klaatsch, of Heidelberg, after years of patient investigation, announces that he has discovered positive evidence that man is not descended from the apes. This looks as if the apes had been putting in testimony for the defense, but the proof is not of that direct character. It consists of the formation of the bicephalous muscle on the upper thigh. While that may not be absolutely convincing to the average man, it will permit the exclusion of the quadrumana from ambitious pedigrees.

Speaking at the noonday meeting of commercial travelers at Baltimore on Monday last Theodore Marburg, one of the magnates of the tobacco trust, told his doubtlessly much astonished auditors that the "drummers" have had their day. "To talk of abolishing trusts," said he, "is as idle as to talk of [illegible] breaking up the great trunk lines and restoring the pre-existing system of small, independently operated railways." The labors of the traveling salesmen were described by the speaker as "economic waste," and the saving of their salaries, he asserted, is only one of the many economies effected by the consolidation of business in the hands of trusts.

The argument of one operator in the anthracite region against the reduction in the price of powder, in addition to the 10 per cent advance in wages, is liable to strike most people as proving altogether too much. It is to the effect that to reduce the price of powder $1.25 per keg "would represent 6 per cent of the miners' wages." It is well enough established that the price of $1.50 per keg for powder represents not only cost but a fair margin of profit to those handling it. If, therefore, the difference between that and $2.75, the price heretofore charged in the anthracite region, is 6 per cent of the miners' wages it follows that the companies have been making an exorbitant profit on their powder, amounting to 6 per cent of the entire earnings of the men who have to pay it. It is not exactly discreet of the anthracite companies to insist so strongly on the magnitude of the sums which they have extracted from the miners by this powder charge

THE NAVIGATION OF THE AIR.

The comparative success of a flying machine, invented and tested by Count Von Zeppelin above Lake Constance, may indicate an advance in the development of aerostatics, but it does not dispose of the physical obstacles to successful navigation in the air.

More than twenty years ago there was exhibited in this country a flying machine that rose and descended at the will of the operator, that could be moved in any direction if the wind was not adverse, and within limits fulfilled all the requirements of a derigible airship. It possessed in another shape than the new ship an enormous balloon to float it, but except that Von Zeppelin's ship can do a little better all the things it did, there is no revolutionizing advance shown by the recent experiments made in Switzerland.

The problem of buoyance is opposed for practical purposes by the necessity of using gases, whose vast envelope offers an area of resistance to the currents of air that no power is able to overcome. It will be noted that the new airship is able to move at almost any angle approximating to the perpendicular head up or head down. This has not been the case with any of its predecessors, whose horizontal angle has been limited to a few degrees because the balloon had always to be on top. This is really the direction in which this new candidate for aerial voyaging has taken the longest step.

It is, of course, absurd to say that human ingenuity will not finally overcome all the difficulties which are so obvious now in aerigible motion in the air. The history of the last one hundred years is marked by the accomplishment of the apparently impossible in a thousand places, but no one can claim that a feasible model is established for superterrestrial travel, or one for any great usefulness in making ascents for scientific observation or military purposes that is not furnished in the old balloon. So far a successful curiosity has been evolved, nothing more.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS AGO

GOLDEN WEDDING OF MR. AND MRS. GEORGE LEHRMAN.

Celebrated at Their Marion Township Home Sunday—Friends Honor Esteemed Pioneers.

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George Lehrman was celebrated Sunday at their pleasant home in Marion township, and the occasion will always remain a most delightful memory to all who participated in its pleasures. The guests included five sons, three daughters, two sons-in-law, sixteen grandchildren and about fifty friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lehrman.

The host and hostess have many friends in Fort Wayne and the surrounding country, and they received many valuable and useful presents. The feast at the Lehrman home was a triumph of cookery that will remain notable even among the generous dinners characteristic of Allen county farm homes. A wealth of pioneer reminiscences told by Mr. Lehrman served to add to the pleasure of the day.

Mr. Lehrman is seventy-eight years of age and his wife is sixty-six. Their entire fifty years of wedded life has been spent in Allen county, for Mr. Lehrman settled on his present farm sixty-eight years ago, and it has been his home continuously since that time.

STATE INSTITUTE

OF FARMERS AT LAFAYETTE WAS INTERESTING

THE NEEDS OF AGRICULTURE

DISCUSSED BY SPECIALISTS AND OTHERS.

ALLEN COUNTY REPRESENTED

GENERAL NEWS OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 22.—The third annual conference of Farmers' institute officers and workers held at Lafayette on the 17th and 18th inst. was a success both in point of attendance and interest. The first session was devoted entirely to the improving and cropping of the soil. That phase of the subject relating to the fertilization proved to be of especial interest to the audience. The address on fertilization was illustrated with bottles containing the plant food elements contained in ten pounds each of several farm products. The illustration showed graphically the loss that occurred when crops were sold from the farm and emphasized very strongly the importance of feeding the roughage upon the farm. At the afternoon session, which was devoted to sheep and cattle, Mr. A. M. Welch, of Ionia, Mich., gave a talk on the feeding of sheep.

POINTS ON BEEF PRODUCTION.

Mr. L. H. Kerrick, of Bloomington, Ill., followed with a paper on "Beef Production." Mr. Kerrick strongly emphasized the importance of growing beef from the start, instead of following the more common method of allowing the animals to grow to maturity and then undergo the fattening process. At the evening session, which was devoted to "The Farm Home," Mrs. James A. Mount read a carefully prepared paper on "The Dwelling," in which she emphasized the importance of a comfortable, convenient, commodious, well-furnished farm dwelling. She began with the kitchen and laid due stress upon those features of the dwelling which make it healthful, comfortable, convenient and tend to reduce the labors of the housewife. Mr. W. S. Ratliff, of Richmond, followed with an earnest plea for tasteful "Home Surroundings," and Mrs. De Vilbiss, of Fort Wayne, discussed "Home Making." All who spoke recognized the importance of comfortable, well-arranged, tasteful farm dwellings, which should be created as early as possible that the children might enjoy them as they grew up.

NEEDS OF AGRICULTURE.

The theme for the Thursday morning session was "The Needs of Agriculture." Mr. U. M. Stewart, of Madison, in a paper presented the necessity of specialization. This was followed by a talk on "Co-operation" by Prof. C. S. Plumb. Mr. Plumb referred to the meager results and frequent failures of co-operation in the United States, and presented some interesting examples of successful co-operation in Holland and Denmark. President Stone then presented the need of agriculture. He showed, by comparative statistics, that Purdue university, despite its relatively meagerly equipped agricultural department, is well to the front among the leading agricultural states in the line of agricultural education. Notwithstanding the good showing which the school of agriculture makes, when Purdue university is compared with the other universities which give several courses, President Stone believes that the number of students in the school of agriculture should be largely increased. He earnestly favored such additional state aid as would make it possible to greatly strengthen and improve the school of agriculture, in which he was warmly seconded by the audience.

GROWTH OF THE INSTITUTION.

Fully three-fourths of the graduates of the school of agriculture engage in the pursuits for which they are trained; and, for two years past, this school has been growing more rapidly than any other in the institution. These facts make the outlook for agricultural education in Indiana very encouraging. The school of agriculture at Purdue is doing well the work for which it was intended. This fully justifies the plea of President Stone for additional means with which to equip and man a school of agriculture, commensurate with the agricultural interests of the state.

The closing session of the conference was devoted to the consideration of the needs of the Farmers' Institute work as viewed from the standpoints of the county chairman. "The Speaker" and "The Superintendent." Alexander Johnson, of Fort Wayne, H. E. McMahan, of Fairfield, W. C. Latta and others participated in the discussion.

The committee on resolutions, consisting of H. F. McMahan, Mrs. Naomi De Vilbiss, of Fort Wayne, G. M. Naber, of Trenty, J. J. W. Billingsley, of Indianapolis, and Milton Trusler, of Connersville, formulated the view of the conference in resolutions urging the necessity of greater appropriations for the state agricultural school at Purdue; providing for a committee of three to urge upon the legislature the necessity of making such appropriations; commending the work done by the school, and urging the necessity for more buildings and more extensive equipment.

DIES LAUGHING AT CARTOON.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 22.—Dr. W. T. Newton, a prominent north side physician, died suddenly at his home, No. 2122 College avenue, yesterday afternoon. He had been ill for some time, but seemed to be improving. His attending physician, Dr. T. B. Noble, had called, and Dr. Newton was in a jovial mood. Together the two physicians were enjoying a newspaper cartoon, when Dr. Newton, with a hearty laugh, threw back his head and instantly expired from a sudden attack of heart disease. Dr. Newton represented Bartholomew county in the legislature in 1895 and then located here. His son, Eustis Newton, is a medical student and a member of the pitching staff of the Cincinnati league club.

YAWNING DISLOCATES HER JAW

Logansport, Ind., Oct. 22.—Miss Alma Norris, aged 17, was seized with a desire to yawn last evening, and while gaping threw her lower jaw out of place, in which condition she remained for an hour, suffering excruciating pain, until two doctors afforded relief.

GIRL TAKES STRYCHNINE.

Goshen, Ind., Oct. 22.—Irene Greenawalt, 19 years old, drove into the town of Nappance and asked Shelly Fager, a young man in James Casper's livery barn, to drive her into the country. When two miles out she directed his attention to a man in a field, and while his head was turned, hastily swallowed a small vial of strychnine. Fager immediately returned to the barn, but before he could reach town she was in convulsions. Till within two weeks she has lived in this city. She has a mother living in East St. Louis. The girl can not live. No cause for the act is known.

DOG AWAKENED HIM.

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 22.—The barking of a dog aroused William Huffman from sleep. He discovered his barn and its contents in flames. It was one of the finest buildings of its kind in the county. The loss, which is covered by insurance, is placed at $5,000. Valuable horses had been turned into a neighboring pasture and were saved.

MAN HOME TO VOTE DIES.

Richmond, Ind., Oct. 22.—Jonathan Whitnere, doorkeeper of the national house of representatives, died here today. He came home from Washington to vote.

BARONESS REACHES HOME.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 22.—Baroness von Kettler, widow of the murdered German ambassador to China, arrived in Detroit yesterday afternoon and was immediately driven to the residence of her father, Henry B. Ledyard, president of the Michigan Central railroad. No one was permitted to see her. When seen at his residence Mr. Ledyard said that the baroness was suffering from nervous prostration, but stood the journey from Pekin to Detroit as well as could have been expected.

SHERMAN IS DEAD

A GUIDE, NOT A LEADER.

He was regarded as a guide, rather than a party leader, for his conservatism, caution, innate good judgment and power of effective execution inspired confidence in any line of action which he advised. This was particularly true in later years, when he held a leading place in the senate on the questions of finance and foreign affairs. Amid the most heated arguments and the widest differences, the entrance of the venerable Ohio senator into the debate was the signal for a period of calm and dispassionate consideration of the serious arguments of the case.

His appearance in a debate was often like the sudden entrance of the school master into a room full of unruly pupils. Mr. Sherman was not regarded as a great orator. His forte was more in the cool analysis of a proposition, appealing to the judgment rather than the emotions and carrying conviction. He presented the simple facts, without any attempt at ornate diction. As a debater he had few equals. Of late years he seldom entered into the daily discussions on lesser topics, but reserved his efforts for the greater questions.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE.

The personal appearance of Mr. Sherman added to the intellectual force he exerted. He is well remembered as he appeared on the floor of the senate during the financial debates preceding the presidential election of 1896.

His tall, spare figure was bent slightly forward over his desk, as, with his index finger extended, he laid down the financial principles of which he had been so close a student.

During the later months of his service in the senate Mr. Sherman had a habit of speaking, and then retiring from the chamber, as though all had been said. In earlier years he was a most attentive listener, even to the minor routine of the senate, and was most deferential and considerate of those with whom he differed, particularly the newcomers.

SHREWD BUSINESS MAN.

In private life Mr. Sherman was known as a shrewd business man, whose habits of industry, thrift and economy had built up a large fortune. When in this city Mr. Sherman spent most of the time in his library, immediately to the right of the main entrance and opposite the drawing room.

Here he could be found almost every day, sitting in a great leathern chair, before a wide flat desk of antique pattern. The walls are covered with books not however, the books of a student or literary man, but volumes of historical data, governmental statistics and treatises on public questions with which his mind had been so long engaged. He gave considerable time also to looking after his large property interests.

Mr. Sherman was well known about the streets of Washington. He was fond of walking, and in his later years he drove almost every afternoon in a large open carriage, accompanied, until her death, by Mrs. Sherman.

The tall, straight-lined, stovepipe hat, not of the latest design, was invariably worn by him, and his dress was of that simplicity and dignity in keeping with the character of the man.

MUCH SORROW EXPRESSED.

The news of Mr. Sherman's death was communicated to the state department by Mr. E. J. Babcock, for many years private secretary and clerk to Mr. Sherman in his various capacities as secretary of the treasury, United States senator and secretary of state, and at present private secretary of Secretary Hay.

The president was at once informed by the department and the flags on the public buildings in Washington were lowered to half mast, so they remain until after the funeral.

The president, as a mark of special honor to the deceased, who was not at the time of his death connected in any official capacity with the government of the United States, resorted to the unusual course of personally preparing an expression of the nation's grief in the shape of a proclamation descriptive of the personal qualities and civic abilities of the deceased statesman.

At the state department also a message was framed to be transmitted in multiple to the United States ambassadors, ministers and charges abroad, officially notifying them of the demise of ex-Secretary Sherman. The department will be closed for business during the funeral services in order to allow the officials and employes to attend in person.

SECRETARY HAY'S TRIBUTE.

Ex-Secretary Sherman was known intimately, not only officially, but personally, to Secretary of State John Hay, ever since the days of the civil war, so that naturally Mr. Hay was deeply depressed at the news of the death of his predecessor in office, even though that event had been expected for the last few days. In commenting upon the sad event, Secretary Hay said:

"In the death of Mr. Sherman the country has lost one of its greatest citizens, a man whose name was inseparably connected with all the great events and policies of the latter half of the nineteenth century, a man not only of extraordinary ability, but of the most spotless character, and one whose personality, as well as his work, will always be a model, and an incentive to the youth of the country."

SECRETARY LONG'S WORDS.

The navy department flag will be half-masted in respect to Mr. Sherman's memory. Beyond this there will be no official action by this department. Secretary Long was notified of the death of his former colleague after reaching the department. In speaking of the event he said:

"I can only express my deep regret and unlimited respect for Mr. Sherman. He was a remarkable man, one of the eminent statesmen of this country, and his name will be so recorded in history. The country owes him a debt of gratitude for the service he rendered while secretary of the treasury in maintaining the national credit on a sound and conservative basis."

MR. GAGE'S ESTIMATE OF HIM.

Secretary Gage said of Mr. Sherman:

"For nearly forty-five years Mr. Sherman has been a prominent and influential figure in our public life. Whether as a representative, a senator or as a member of the cabinet he was at all times a distinctive and recognized force. He became secretary of the treasury at a most trying period. He had led the forces in congress which passed the resumption act in 1874. As secretary of the treasury in 1877 it became his duty to carry into effect the provisions of the law he had previously in congress done so much to inaugurate. In the performance of this duty he had many difficulties to meet, but he met them with the wise foresight, the steady courage and the calm persistency which the occasion demanded.

"History will, I believe, point to that period as the most brilliant in his career and will recognize that in bringing back the national treasury to specie payment on January 1, 1879, he accomplished the greatest and most useful work of his long and fruitful life."

The news of Mr. Sherman's death was immediately communicated to the president, who had been extremely solicitous as to his former premier's condition.

PRESIDENT GRIEVED.

The last word previous to the announcement of Mr. Sherman's death this morning had been received by the president at midnight last night. The president was great affected by the news. He immediately directed that the white house be closed to visitors and the flag over the executive mansion placed at half mast.

After ordering some beautiful flowers to be sent from the white house conservatory he went in person to Mr. Sherman's late residence to express his grief and offer what consolation he could to the bereaved family. Mrs. McCallum informed him of the provisional funeral arrangements and the president decided not to delay his departure for Canton tonight if they were adhered to, but to attend the funeral services at Mansfield on Wednesday. Mrs. McKinley later drove to the Sherman residence and left her card. It is probable that the president will issue an executive order closing the departments on the day of the funeral as a mark of respect to the dead statesman.

LIFE OF JOHN SHERMAN.

The passing of John Sherman removes from the public stage about the last of those towering figures whose public lives, beginning with the civil war and covering a period of the last forty years, were interwoven with the great events of that epoch. As his illustrious brother, William Tecumseh, shared with Grant and Sheridan the highest place among the military heroes of the country, so, too, John Sherman stood in civic life along with Seward, Sumner, Evarts, Blaine and that coterie of intellectual giants of war and reconstruction days. Always a leader, twice a member of the cabinet—first as head of the treasury and then of state affairs—three times a candidate for the republican nomination for the presidency, and for years one of the great creative forces in congress, his name was identified with the laws, the law-making and the political struggles which engaged attention for almost half a century. Few men had more continuous public service in such a diversity of fields and in all of them his work was conspicuous.

REVOLUTIONARY ANCESTORS.

John Sherman was born in Lancaster Ohio, May 10, 1823, three years after the birth of his brother, William Tecumseh. They came of sturdy ancestors, tracing their lineage back to Roger Sherman, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, to the Shermans who came over shortly after the landing of the Pilgrims. The father was a lawyer of prominence in Ohio, who rose in later life to be judge of the supreme court. When he died in 1829 the large family of boys were left with scant support and were adopted by friends and relatives. William went with Thomas Ewing, who shaped his career as a soldier, while John went with an older brother, Charles, at Mansfield, and took up the study of law, which in turn took him into the field of politics and public life.

His first public service was in 1846, when he was a delegate to the whig convention at Philadelphia, which nominated Zachary Taylor for the presidency. Again in 1852 he was a delegate to Baltimore, when Winfield Scott was nominated for the presidency.

HIS FIRST ELECTION.

In those early days his characteristics of caution and conservatism had marked him as a safe man among the many who were wrought to excitement and emotion by the events leading up to the war. This characteristic secured for him his first election to congress. He was elected to the Thirty-fourth congress and took his seat December 3, 1855. A momentous period was just then unfolding and he came upon the scene when just such men of ability and courage were needed. The attempts to repeal the Missouri compromise, the Dred Scott decision, the fugitive slave law, the spread of abolition sentiment and the lowering clouds of a civil conflict gave evidence that the very existence of the republic was at stake. Amid such impressive conditions Sherman at once came to the front as one of the leaders of legislative action. His prominence began when the speaker, Nathaniel P. Banks, appointed him on the committee to investigate the ruffianism in "Bleeding Kansas." He was acting chairman during the inquiry and the report he made was the basis for the presidential canvass of 1856.

HIS SECOND TERM.

At the end of his second term in congress he was recognized as the foremost man in the house of representatives. He was a candidate for speaker, coming within three votes of that position. His defeat for the speakership led to his becoming chairman of the committee on ways and means. Here for the first time his peculiar genius for finance showed itself. The finances of the country were sadly crippled, members of the congress were not receiving their pay. His first step was in securing the passage of the bill authorizing the treasury notes of 1860.

About this time Salmon P. Chase resigned his seat as senator from Ohio and Sherman was elected to his place, entering the senate for the first time on March 4, 1861. His congressional fame had preceded him, and he at once took the same rank in the upper branch as he had in the lower. His service was continuous until 1873, most of the time as chairman of the finance committee, in which position he wrote many of those far-reaching measures of finance with which he was identified. The suspension of specie payment occurred in 1862, necessitating the issue of United States notes. He largely carried this measure through and was also the defender of the legal tender feature of these notes, which excited wide differences in and out of congress. Following this he devised the plan for resuming specie payment, and practically framed the bill by which resumption was to occur on January 1 1879.

When Hayes became president Sherman entered the treasury, and there as executive officer he had an opportunity to execute the plan of specie payment which he previously played on the statute books. His first move was to begin the accumulation of a great stock of gold with which to pay specie for paper when January 1, 1879, arrived.

AS TREASURY SECRETARY.

Six months before that time he had accumulated in the treasury $140,000,000, and when January 1 came he had the satisfaction of seeing the paper money gradually rise to the value of gold until gold no longer brought a premium. The execution of this important fiscal move, through congress and in the treasury, aroused intense differences, and there was criticism as well as approval.

In 1880 he became a candidate for the presidency, and his name was presented to the national convention by James A. Garfield. In the contest between the friends of Grant and Blaine Garfield was nominated. Again, in the national convention of 1884, he was placed in nomination by Joseph B. Foraker. But the Ohio delegation divided, and Sherman secured only a few votes. In 1888 he was a candidate for the third time, leading throughout, with 249 votes on the second ballot, and continually thereafter until Benjamin Harrison was nominated by the withdrawal of other candidates. He had returned to the senate in 1881, serving continuously until 1897, when he resigned to enter the cabinet of President McKinley as secretary of state. His resignation from that body occurred soon after the declaration of war with Spain, and he returned to private life, after forty-five years of almost continuous public service. Since then he had done some literary work, carrying forward his memoirs from the period of his former book.

FUNERAL IN WASHINGTON.

The funeral will be held at the Sherman residence early Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Alexander Mackay-Smith, rector of St. John's church, officiating. The hour has not yet been determined as the railway arrangements for transporting the body to Mansfield, O., depend upon a message from President Garratt, of the Pennsylvania, which is hourly expected.

Services will be held in Mansfield on Thursday, which President McKinley will attend. It is known that Mr. Sherman left a will, but no information as to its contents or even when it will be probated will be obtained until after the funeral.

PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.

The president this afternoon issued the following proclamation.

"Death of the Honorable John Sherman.

"By the President of the United States of America—A Proclamation to the People of the United States: In the fullness of years and honors, John Sherman, lately secretary of state, has passed away.

"Few among our citizens have risen to greater or more deserved eminence in the national councils that he. The story of his public life and services is as it were the history of the country for half a century. In the congress of the United States he ranked among the foremost in the house and later in the senate. He was twice a member of the executive cabinet, first as secretary of the treasury and afterwards as secretary of state. Whether in debate during the dark hours of our civil war, or as the director of the country's finances during the period of rehabilitation, or as a trusted councilor in framing the nation's law for over forty years, or as the exponent of its foreign policy, his course was ever marked by devotion to the best interests of his beloved land, and by able and conscientious efforts to uphold its dignity and honor.

"His countrymen will long revere his memory and see in him a type of the patriotism, the uprightness and the zeal that go to molding and strengthening a nation.

"In fitting expression of the sense of bereavement that afflicts the republic, I direct that on the day of the funeral the executive offices of the United States display the national flag at half mast and that the representatives of the United States in foreign countries shall pay in like manner appropriate tribute to the illustrious dead for a period of ten days.

"Done at the City of Washington, this twenty-second day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand and nine hundred, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and twenty-fifth.

"William McKinley.

"By the president:

"John Hay, Secretary of State."

WOULD-BE ASSASSIN SLAIN.

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 22.—Retribution came quickly to a would-be assassin in Greenville Saturday night. Melvin Langley, a well known young man, was mistaken by his father for the man whose life they had planned to take and was mortally shot. Before his son died yesterday the sheriff took the father from the jail to his home to say farewell to the boy. The Langleys and the Fullers have been on bad terms and after midnight young Langley went home and reported to his father that Jesse and Wesley Fuller had shot at him on the street. The two Langleys got their pistols and cautiously approached the house of the Fullers. The plan was that the Fullers were to be decoyed out of the house and the Langleys, guarding front and back doors, would kill them as they showed themselves. The elder Langley hid himself and the son went to the other side of the house, but before calling out the Fullers the young man came back to his father to say something. The elder man, thinking the Fullers had come out, shot his son through the body.

POLITICAL CHAT

CHAS. K. LADD WILL BE HERE SATURDAY.

BIG CROWD AT HUNTINGTON

SENATOR FAIRBANKS NEXT WEDNESDAY EVENING.

POLITICAL MEETINGS FIXED

TWO MEETINGS TO BE HELD TONIGHT—GOSSIP.

The democratic state committee has assigned Hon. Charles K. Ladd to speak in Fort Wayne next Saturday evening. Mr. Ladd is one of Illinois' best speakers and was to have been here last Friday, but failed to come. The Hendricks and Jefferson clubs may decide to go to Decatur next Saturday evening at which time Adams county democrats will have a grand rally.

SENATOR FAIRBANKS COMING.

Senator C. W. Fairbanks is advertised to speak at Princess rink next Wednesday evening, October 24, and arrangements are being made to tender him a big reception when he arrives. Next Monday evening Senator Beveridge will speak at Princess rink.

BIG POLITICAL EXCURSION.

The Wabash railway last Saturday evening carried to Huntington the greatest number of Fort Wayne citizens who ever left the city to attend a political meeting. The Jefferson and Hendricks clubs had arranged to repay the visit of the Huntington democrats of Friday evening and the Wabash railway made ready to carry 600 passengers on a special train, which was to have left the city at 6:30 p. m. The marching clubs had invited other democrats to attend and the result was an overwhelming rush at the depot. At 6 o'clock not a ticket had been sold, but long before time for the train to start District Passenger Agent Thompson and Ticket Agent Douglass had sold 919 tickets, all that were in the office. They refused to sell any more, although between 400 and 500 additional people were ready to purchase and make the trip. Eleven coaches had been provided, but this wasn't enough, and two baggage cars were attached. The cars were soon packed and there wasn't standing room in any of the thirteen cars for a bean-pole. Conductor Henry Gage had charge of the train and he collected, besides the 919 tickets, a large number of fares. It is estimated that there were 1,100 people in the thirteen cars, including the Olympia band, the Jefferson drum corps and the Eighth ward drum corps. It was 7:20 when the train left Fort Wayne with 500 disappointed democrats on the depot platform cheering those who had been lucky enough to get on the train. The train was more than an hour making the trip to Huntington, but when it did arive thousands of cheering democrats were at the depot to meet them, while the streets were thronged with thousands more who were desirous of seeing the big turnout of Fort Wayne democrats. The parade started immediately on the arrival of the Fort Wayne clubs and the utmost enthusiasm abounded. All along the line there were continued shouts of "Hurrah for Fort Wayne," and to say that the excursionists were happy is putting it only mildly. The parade was the biggest affair Huntington ever saw of its kind and impartial observers assert that never before in its history did the Lime City have a bigger crowd on its streets. Several hundred railroad men went with the Hendricks club and there were besides a few members from every ward club in the city, and also a score or more of pretty young ladies. After the big parade the Fort Wayne visitors were given the liberty of the town and for more than three hours Huntington heard unceasing shouts for Bryan, while the Eighth ward drum corps paraded about the streets leading hundreds who never did cease shouting for the great leader of democratic hosts. It was 12 o'clock when the train started back for Fort Wayne, and while the visitors made the welkin ring with their shouts, there had not been a single happening to mar the pleasure of the trip. Mayor Dungan and C. D. Landis, chairman of the democratic county committee, were profuse in their thanks to the Fort Wayne clubs, and with Huntingtonians, at least, Fort Wayne has "squared" itself for the big crowds that have often come here. The merchants of the city, regardless of politics, were pleased at Fort Wayne's turnout, and it is now certain that this city will always have the citizens of the Lime City as allies in any demonstration which may hereafter be given. Major Menzies delivered the address of the evening at Clayton's hall and a big crowd heard him.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Jacob Ingenthron, a noted German speaker, will this evening address the German voters of the Seventh and Tenth wards at Hartman's hall, on Hanna street.

The republicans of the Sixth ward will have a rally this evening. There will be addresses in the tent at the corner of Broadway and Creighton avenue by R. B. Hanna, P. A. Randall and J. F. W. Meyer.

Hon. James M. Robinson and Judge Edward O'Rourke delivered addresses before a large audience of democrats at Monroeville last Saturday evening. John Connolly presided.

The Eighth ward drum corps will meet at Vogely's hall Wednesday evening and lead a parade of the club members throughout the ward. Jacob Ingenthron will deliver an address in German and there will also be an English speech at the hall after the parade.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.

Democratic meetings have been arranged as follows for next week:

Thursday evening, at Besancon school, Jefferson township; speakers, Congressman Robinson and C. A. Ryan.

Saturday evening, Monroeville; Henry Colerick and Ronald T. Dawson.

Saturday evening, Maysville; Congressman Robinson and H. I. Smith.

Saturday evening, Fisher school house, Pleasant township; James M. Barrett.

Tuesday evening, Williamsport; Henry Colerick and H. S. Pulse.

Tuesday evening, Fry's school house, Madison township; Henry Colerick and A. E. Thomas.

Friday evening, Sheldon; Judge O'Rourke and A. E. Thomas.

Hon. R. B. Hanna, republican candidate for congress, accompanied by the Angola and Pleasant Lake glee clubs, with a bugler in advance to notify the people of his coming, will make a tour of Steuben county this week, arriving and speaking as follows: Pleasant Lake, Friday, Oct. 26, at 1:30 p. m.; Hudson, 2:00; Helmer, 3:00; Salem, 4:00; Flint, 5:00; Orland, 7:30. Begin at Jamestown, October 27, at 7:30 a. m.; Fremont at 8:30; district No. 4, Clear Lake, 9:30; Page, 10:15; Metz, 11:30; Ellis, 12:30 p. m., and Angola at 1:30.

HANNA AT GARRETT.

R. B. Hanna, candidate for congress, spoke at Garrett Saturday evening and the Tippecanoes and other Fort Wayne republicans went over to hear him. The local republicans had arranged for a 55-cent fare and 148 tickets were sold. Mr. Hanna delivered an address at a big meeting and General Bussey was also to have spoken, but as soon as Mr. Hanna had finished the crowd dispersed and the general spoke about fifteen minutes. C. R. Lane and others addressed an overflow meeting.

A HANNA MEETING.

The republican central committee has arranged for a "Bob" Hanna meeting to be held in this city Thursday evening, November 1, when Mr. Hanna will address the wage-earners of the county at Princess rink.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—With steady cables, bullish weekly statistics and rains in the northwest, the first hour of trade today failed to show the strength that had been expected. This was accounted for by the lack of outside business and the bearishness which seems to have become a habit with the local crowd. December opened ⅜c higher at 74¾c, dropped to 74⅛c and then rallied to 74⅝c. Local receipts were 344 cars, 3 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 506 cars, against 1,703 last week and 1,155 a year ago.

Near the end the market became extremely dull and December slumped from 74⅜c to 74⅛@74¼c, closing weak, ⅜@½c lower at 74⅛@74¼c. The visible increase was 1,335,000 bushels.

Corn was quiet and steady with a fair general trade, unsettled weather and higher cables being supporting influences. Receipts were 659 cars. December opened unchanged at 35⅝c and advanced to 35¾@@35⅞c.

The colse was firm, December ½c higher at 36¾c.

Oats were dull but steady on the weather and in sympathy with corn. Receipts were 275 cars. December opened unchanged at 22½c and sold to 22¾c.

Provisions were quiet but firm on moderate hogs receipts, strong prices at the yards and moderate buying by outside interests. January pork opened 5c higher at $11.45, January lard 2½c up at $6.70, and January ribs a shade lower at 6.02½@6.05.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—Oct., 73¾c; Nov., 73½c; Dec., 74⅛@74¼c.

Corn—Oct., 40½c; Nov., 38½@38¼c; Dec., 35¾c; May, 36¾@36⅞c.

Oats—Oct., 21½@21⅝c; Nov., 21⅞c; Dec., 22½@22¼c; May, 24½c.

Pork—Nov., $11.02½; aJn., $11.40.

Lard—Oct., $7.00; Nov., $6.97½; Dec., $6.80; Jan., $6.67½.

Ribs—Oct., 86.97; Nov., $6.32½; Jan., $6.02½.

Flax—Cash N. W., $1.82; Cash S. W., $1.80@1.81; Oct., $1.80; Nov., $1.73@1.75; Dec., $1.70; May, $1.70.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Cattle—Receipts, 19,500, including 6,000 westerns and 1,000 Texans; market generally strong to 10c higher. Good to prime steers, $5.50@5.95; poor to medium, $5.40@5.45; stockers and feeders, $2.75@4.45; cows, $2.80@4.40; heifers, $2.80@4.85; canners, $2.00@2.75; bulls, $2.75@4.40; calves, $4.00@6.25; Texas fed steers, $4.10@4.90; Texas grass steers, $3.40@4.15; Texas bulls, $2.75@3.75.

Hogs—Receipts today, 31,000; tomorrow, 25,000; left over, 2,000. Market 5c higher; top, $4.92½. Mixed and butchers, $4.60@4.92½; good to choice heavy, $4.65@4.90; rough heavy, $4.50@4.60; light, $4.50@4.90; bulk of sales, $4.70@4.80.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Oct. 22.—First transactions in many prominent stocks were very large, ranging from 1,000 shares blocks up to 5,000 shares in Atchison preferred. Prices moved upward throughout, but the gains in the Steel stocks were most notable, ranging from 1 to 3 points, the latter in National Tubs. Tennessee Coal showed a slightly reactionary tendency.

Rapid fluctuations in either direction marked the first hour's trading. The dealings were on an enormous scale and variations of a point o rmore were common in the specialties. Pressed Steel Car was rushed up 7½ to 48 on the announcement that one-quarter of the year dividend on the common stock would be paid. The Republic Steel stocks were erratic and feverish. Professional operators unloaded heavily and there were some distinctly weak spots, notably Chesapeake and Ohio, Burlington, Norfolk and Western, Manhattan and People's Gas. The latter suffered 9⅜. The realizing began to affect prices. Pressed Steel Car reacted 4 points, when Sugar was rushed up to 123⅜. The market steadied and became quieter.

A renewed demand for the Steel stocks brought some of them up notably, but as a rule the general market failed to return to the best prices and inclined lower. Baltimore and Ohio was the exture of the active railroads, rising to 75½. Large buying of Southern Pacific helped it somewhat, and Lake Erie and Western preferred rose 4 points. United States Rubber advanced 2⅝ before noon and a sudden rise of 3⅜ in People's Gas served to sustain the market.

Bonds were active and strong.

NEW YORK PRODUCE.

New York, Oct. 22.—Butter—Receipts, 7,334 pkgs; market firm; creamery, 16@22½c; June creamery, 18@21c; factory, 13@16c.

Cheese—Receipts, 3,346 pkgs; market firm; large white, 10⅞c; small white, 11c; large colored, 11c; small colored, 11c.

Eggs—Receipts, 8,180 pkgs; market firm; western, regular packing, at mark, 16@19c; western, loss off, 21c.

Sugar—Raw, steady; fair refining, 4½c; centrifugal, 90 test, 4¾c; molasses sugar, 4c; refined, quiet; crushed, $6.15; powdered, $5.85; granulated, $5.75.

Coffee—Market dull; No. 7 Rio, 8¼c; market nominal.

THE MONEY MARKET.

New York, Oct. 22.—Money on call nominally at 3@3½ per cent; prime mercantile paper, 5@6 per cent; sterling exchange weak with actual business in bankers' bills of $4.83¾ $4.84 for demand and at $4.81@4.81½ for 60 days; posted rates, $4.81½@4.82 and $4.85@4.85½; commercial bills, $4.80¼@4.80¾; silver certificates, 64½@65½c; bar silver, 64½c; Mexican dollars, 50¾c.

PERISHED IN THE RUINS

FOUR FIREMEN CRUSHED TO DEATH IN ST. PAUL.

Men Buried in the Debris of Falling Walls—Many Others Received Severe Injuries.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 22.—As a result of a fire which broke out in the slaughtering pen of A. V. Minman & Co.'s packing house, at the Minnesota transfer, four firemen are dead and a number of others are injured, and property to the amount of $430,000 burned.

The dead:

William M. Irvine, second assistant fire chief.

Lieut. Frank M. Edey, engine company No. 13.

Burt Irish, engine company No. 13.

Louis Wagner, engine company No. 13.

The injured:

Andrew Johnson, engine company No. 13; taken from the ruins badly crushed.

BURIED UNDER FALLING WALL

From the packing house the flames spread to the warehouse of the Northwestern Lime company, thence to the McCormick harvester company's large brick warehouse, filled with farm machinery. It was here that the fatalities occurred. The firemen of engine company No. 13 had entered the McCormick warehouse to better fight the flames. There was a tank containing 200 gallons of gasoline in the rear of the building and its explosion shattered the walls, which buried the men. Andrew Johnson was taken from the ruins alive, but so badly injured that he is expected to die. The bodies of the other victims have all been recovered. The losses so far as can be ascertained are:

The McCormick harvester company was the heaviest loser, their loss footing up $380,000. Of this $80,000 was on buildings and $300,000 on stock and notes.

GIRL'S DEFENDER IS SLAIN.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Thomas J. Griffin, a clerk employed by N. K. Fairbanks & Co., was shot yesterday and instantly killed while trying to protect Miss Fay Gilbert from the attack of a strange man, in front of No. 2220 State street. When the stranger saw that Griffin was about to interfere with his designs on Miss Gilbert, he drew his revolver. Unmindful of the threatening muzzle of the weapon, the shipping clerk grappled with the assailant. In a moment he fell to the sidewalk with a bullet through his heart. The murderer escaped.

HOME IS IN OHIO.

Sunday afternoon a stranger got onto a Belt line car and for three hours enjoyed himself riding around the Belt line, settling each time for the trip. The police were notified and suspecting that he might be insane he was taken into custody. This morning a letter addressed to Joseph Hacker, Stedeke, Ohio, was found in his pockets. Sheriff Melching telegraphed the Mercer county sheriff and received a telegram in reply this afternoon requesting that Hacker be held until Sheriff Lawrence Schmick arrived here.

WORK IS STOPPED

AT A WASHERY BY A BAND OF MARCHERS.

THE DEPUTIES WARNED AWAY

FIRST HOSTILE MOVE IN THE LACKAWANNA VALLEY.

APPEAL FOR AID IS ISSUED

STRIKERS ASK FOR HELP TO CARRY ON STRUGGLE.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 22.—The first hostile demonstration of the miners' strike in the Lackawanna region was made this morning at Oliphant, near here, where it was determined to close down the Grassy Island coal washery operated by the Delawnre and Hudson company. The place had been working a force of thirty men during the past two weeks and was daily turning out a thousand tons of the smaller sizes of fuel for the market. This morning several hundred strikers gathered along the road near the washery and when the workmen appeared circled around them and gave them to understand they must desist from working until the strike was settled. Two of the deputies at the mine came on the scene and were warned against any interference.

The workmen decided they would return home. The strikers marched with them back to Oliphant, shouting as they passed down the main street.

This was the first move towards shutting down the washeries in the valley, and if other men at work there do not come out there will be demonstrations of the same nature.

No violence was used at Grassy Island. The Delaware and Hudson company has fifty deputies on guard at its Rocket Brook washery, in Carbondale, today, some twenty men being at work there getting out coal. The large force of deputies was provided because of a reported threat that the place would be attacked by marchers today.

APPEAL FOR RELIEF.

Mount Carmel, Pa., Oct. 22.—The miners' relief committee of this place has issued a circular letter asking for contributions in aid of the striking miners of this district.

The committee asserts that while it is hoped that the strike will be ended within a few days, this will not materially change the deplorable condition of the miners. It will be at least four weeks before those returning to work will receive any pay, and their families must be cared for in the interval.

The committee is not connected in any way with the United Mine Workers of America. Thomas H. Williams, the postmaster, is the president.

NO ONE WENT TO WORK.

Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 22.—The whistles of Cameron and Luke Fidler collieries, operated by the Mineral company, were blown this morning, but none of the striking miners returned to work.

FLIGHT OF THE EMPRESS

AN INTERESTING STORY IS BROUGHT FROM CHINA.

Escape of the Court From Pekin Forms One of Most Entrancing Stories of the Campaign.

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 22.—The Oriental liner Glenogle, which reached Tacoma last night, brings an interesting story of the flight of the empress dowager from Pekin. The escape of the court furnishes one of the most entrancing stories of the Chinese campaign. The Shanghai Mercury tells the story as follows:

"It appears that in accordance with the regular practice of the Chinese officials in similar cases, false reports of suppositious victories over the allies were persistently rendered to the palace, with the result that the court was lulled into a feeling of fancied security that is was not until the allies had actually entered the capital that the real facts became known to the empress and a rude awakening took place.

"On the early morning of the 15th of August the dowager, in company with the emperor, left the palace clothed in common Chinese cotton garments, traveling in an ordinary Chinese cart, and accompanied by an insignificant retinue. Such was the hurry of their departure that no money or valuables in any quantity were taken with them and for several days the imperial party is said to have suffered great hardships. The only food with which they were supplied was the common millet of the country, and at night they had to sleep in wayside inns on the rough brick kangs furnished for the accommodation of travelers.

"Among those who accompanied the court were Prince Tuan, Kang Ye and Wang Wenshao, and it is said that the empress, feeling sympathy with the latter on account of his age, urged him to return to his residence at the capital, but the old man begged with tears to be allowed to share in the exile of the court. The humiliating effect of this experience upon the proud Manchus can better be imagined than described and it has evidently inspired a desire for vengeance, as is indicated in the secret orders sent to Li Hung Chang for the recapture of Tien Tsin and Pekin, as well as by the tone of recent edicts.

"In the light of the above narrative the reference in the account given by the Sin Wen Hoa of the reported disgrace of Prince Tuan to the discomforts attending the flight from Pekin affords some circumstantial evidence of the accuracy of that account, and the fact that the same paper in its issue of this morning again refers to the empress' displeasure with the prince adds further weight to its previous statement."

REPUBLICANS ATTEMPT TO TAKE SNAP JUDGMENT.

There are two candidates on the county ballots whose names are not expected to be thereon until late Saturday afternoon. Major G. W. Wilson has been named as a candidate for senator to fill the seat now occupied by George V. Kell. There has been some dispute as to whether the seat occupied by W. C. Ryan or Geo. V. Kell was vacant and the democrats had decided that Mr. Ryan, if anybody, would be ousted and nominated S. B. Fleming for the place. The republicans named no candidate. At 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, a minute or two before the county clerk's office closed, Judge Vesey stepped into the office and handed Clerk Belot a petition signed by twenty-five republicans requesting the name of G. W. Wilson be placed on the republican ticket as a candidate for senator from Allen county.

It appears the democrats had expected this. Mr. Belot accepted the republican petition with a smile and remarked that he had in his possession a petition for the placing of the name of George V. Kell on the democratic ticket, and immediately proceeded to file the Kell petition along with the Wilson petition. This means that the voters of this county will vote for two senators and the legislature will then determine which ones are entitled to seats in the state senate. The republicans had expected to catch the democrats napping and hoped for Mr. Wilson's election without opposition. The senate, being republican, would then have unseated Mr. Kell instead of Mr. Ryan and allowed Mr. Wilson to serve four years as senator. But in this they have been checkmated and Mr. Wilson may withdraw his name from the ticket.

VOCKE TO COME.

Chairman Berghoff will probably arrange for the big German demonstration of the campaign next Saturday evening, when William Vocke a prominent German educator and citizen of Chicago, will be here and address German citizens at Saengerbund hall. Hon. C. K. Ladd's assignament will probably be cancelled and the meeting given up entirely to the Germans. Mr. Vocke has always been a republican and on October 13 declared for Bryan.

AFTER JOE BAILEY.

An effort is being made by the democratic county committee to bring Hon. Joseph W. Bailey, of Texas, to Fort Wayne on the evening of November 2. Mr. Bailey has spoken in Fort Wayne and is a big favorite with local democrats.

SHOP AND RAIL

BIG G4 PASSENGER ENGINES ARE COMING HERE.

AND HAUL THE HEAVIEST TRAINS SINGLE HANDED.

NICKEL PLATE'S BIRTHDAY

IS EIGHTEEN YEARS OLD TODAY—BIT OF HISTORY.

The Fort Wayne-Crestline division of the Pennsylvania will soon have two of the big new G4A passenger engines in service. One of them arrived yesterday and is in the hands of Engineer Bailey Hedges, being "broken in," and another will arrive about Thursday. These massive engines are exactly like the big G4A freight engines put into service some months ago, with the exception of the drivers, which on the passenger engine are seventy-two inches in diameter, while those of the freight engine are only sixty-two inches. These new locomotives will haul trains 15 and 20 and 6 and 19. Crews have not been assigned.

WORKING FULL TIME AGAIN.

Every department of the Pittsburg shops is now running full time—sixty hours per week. For some weeks some of the departments had been running only fifty hours per week, but the work in the shop has increased to the extent that an increase in the working hours is also necessary.

DURNELL'S BIG CATCH.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Durnell have returned from West lake, where he did a little phenomenal fishing. Together with Charles Rekers and Harry Moritz, Mr. Durnell caught 116 small-mouthed black bass in two days, the lot weighing sixty-five pounds. There were other fish caught, but they were not considered worth saving and the string mentioned only included those fish brought home. Other fishermen report entirely different results of their outing at Rome City, some of them not even getting a bite.

FOREMAN MEYERS ENTERTAINS

Forty or fifty of the machinists at the Bass works enjoyed the hospitality of their foreman, H. W. Meyers, Saturday evening. It was an exclusive masculine affair, no ladies being present except when it came time to serve a most delicious lunch, which the ladies of the house had prepared. Pedro and music figured in the amusements, the guests meanwhile puffing fragrant Havanas, which were provided with characteristic generosity by the host. Mr. and Mrs. Meyers celebrated their silver wedding last Wednesday evening and the attendance was over a hundred. Many of the shopmen remained away that night in order that there might be plenty of room for the relatives and immediate friends of the family, and Saturday night's party was, therefore, a sort of an "overflow" meeting. It was a very enjoyable affair.

TRAIN KILLS A HORSE.

Pennsylvania train No. 19, second section, killed a horse belonging to Christian Hagenfeld, the Broadway grocer, at 6:45 Saturday evening. The driver left the animal standing on Rockhill street while he went in a house to deliver some goods. The horse walked away and was crossing the tracks when struck by the train. The wagon was demolished.

NICKEL PLATE'S ANNIVERSARY

On Monday, October 23, 1882, the first passenger train passed through this city over the Nickel Plate and the event was the occasion for some display of satisfaction with the situation on the part of Fort Wayne citizens. Hundreds of them assembled at the depot and many purchased tickets and rode down to New Haven, where the trains passed, merely for the honor of being one of the very first passengers on the road. The eighteen years that have elapsed since that day have brought wonderful changes to the road, not only in its physical condition, but to its official roster. Of the heads of the several departments only one remains unchanged. Charles E. Stapleford was then, as he is now, foreman of the car inspectors and car repairers, leaving a position on the Lake Erie and Western road to take this one. Other officers at the beginning of the road's existence were Superintendent Dwight, Superintendent of Motive Power Ross Kells, Master Mechanic Frank Boatman, Trainmaster Ed Hunsaker, Yardmaster Toby Search and Freight Agent F. H. Bernard. The company at the date mentioned did not have a regular passenger agent, it being then more interested in freight traffic, but an agency was established soon afterwards and Mr. Gardner was chosen for that office. S. K. Blair, the present trainmaster, was chief dispatcher in the early days. During the world's fair at Chicago the road put on some through passenger trains of up-to-date pattern and the experiment was so satisfactory that the service has been maintained since, securing a fair share of the patronage and constantly improving and increasing the service. It established a district passenger agency here, in addition to the local agency, a few years ago and this has also been found profitable. Charles A. Asterlin very efficiently fills that office, while R. J. Hamilton presides over the local office.

DYNOMETER CAR STARTS OUT.

The Pennsylvania dynometer car left this morning for the northern division of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, where some tests which will consume about ten days will be made. The tests will be in charge of J. J. Baugnot, Joseph Bursley and E. S. Turner, of this city.

BURNED HIS HAND.

C. W. Koenig, who is employed in the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, had the misfortune to have one of his hands severely burned Saturday evening. The accident will cause a loss of time, but no permanent injury will result.

SUCCEEDS HIS FATHER.

Charles W. Banta this morning assumed the office of foreman of the paint department of the eastern division of the Wabash, succeeding his father, the late Herman Banta, who was buried last Friday. Charles Banta learned his trade in that shop and has worked there for many years. For several years he was an assistant to the elder Banta and acted as foreman during the absence from the shops of that gentleman. The appointment was not a surprise, as everybody conceded the position to Mr. Banta. He is competent and popular, both with employer and employe, and the appointment seems to be regarded by all as the very best thing to do.

WILLIAM M'NUTT HURT.

William McNutt, a former citizen of Fort Wayne, was again the victim of a railway accident last week. He is now employed as a brakeman on the Baltimore and Ohio road, having headquarters at Garrett, Ind. While in the performance of his duty, he was caught in such manner that the skin and flesh was completely stripped from one of his heels. About eighteen months ago Mr. McNutt had an arm and leg fractured in a railway accident. He said at that time that he had enough of railroading and would engage otherwise in the future, but this resolution remained good only during the term of disability. As soon as well enough he returned to the road. Several of the men who went with the Tippecanoes to Garrett Saturday called to see Mr. McNutt.

BIG SHARE OF BAD LUCK.

John Guebard, a watchman for the Pennsylvania company at the Walton avenue yards, appears to be having more than his share of misfortune. Last year he fell and a train passed over his right arm, necessitating amputation at the elbow. Sunday evening while going home from work Mr. Guebard fell, striking his knee upon a rail, and cut a fearful gash in the knee. The injured man was assisted to his home at 28 Hurd street, where Dr. C. B. Stemen attended him. The accident will keep Mr. Guebard from work for some time.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Harry Beers, of the electric works, is laid up with a lame foot.

K. Vorndrau, W. M. Lackey and Ed J. Ryan, Pittsburg employes, are off duty on account of sickness.

W. H. Sherbondy, chief electrician of the Pittsburg, is in Chicago on business in that connection today.

Next Sunday the Wabash will carry the Alice Neilson Opera company from Pittsburg to St. Louis on a special train.

The Pennsylvania officials, including General Manager L. F. Loree, who had been inspecting the Panhandle lines, passed through this city last Saturday evening. They came in over the Wabash and left over the Pennsylvania for Pittsburg.

Thomas W. Smith, who had a hand hurt in the Pittsburg 'smith shop last week, reported for work this morning.

D. Barley, of the Pittsburg lumber yards, is visiting in Warsaw. He made the trip to that city Saturday in his buggy.

J. H. Hilgerman, a construction man, is at home after a trip out in the interest of the Fort Wayne Electric company.

E. Ryan, who was formerly engaged in business in the city, has taken a position in the Pittsburg lumber yards.

Saturday afternoon the Fort Wayne Electric company sent a dynamo to Norton, Mass., where a plant is to be installed.

F. F. Whitley, general foreman of the Wabash shops at St. Thomas, Ont., was here to consult Master Mechanic G. S. McKee today.

Thomas Bandau, a boilermaker, has returned to work in the Wabash shops after working a few days in the company's shops at Ashley.

R. A. LaMar, F. A. Allison, F. M. Shambaugh and G. Meyers, of the Pittsburg shops, are off duty to look after some private business.

E. J. King, foreman of the laboratory department of the electric works, left Saturday evening for Boston, in the interest of the company.

Thomas Patton, a machinist, resumed work in Foreman Knothe's room, at the electric works, this morning, after a week's sickness.

Will Bergen, the ball player, and Edward Stephan resigned their positions in the electric works this morning, after a service of only a week or two.

Alonzo Swank has returned from Lake View, Mich., where he was engaged several days in making some repairs to a dynamo. He is a winder.

Foreman Hugh Hogan, who was sick a few days, resumed charge of the Pittsburg machine shop this morning. Apparently he is as well as ever.

E. R. Neely, day operator at the east yards of the Pittsburg, is sick and off duty and H. C. Burton, of Lima, is temporarily working in the office out there.

Machinist B. F. McFerran, who had an accident in the Pittsburg shops two weeks ago, has recovered and this morning resumed his place in that establishment.

Manager A. C. F. Wichman, of the Anthony Wayne Manufacturing company, who came here a few days ago to attend the wedding of his son, left for St. Louis this morning.

F. Hildebrand, who has worked in the Pittsburg lumber yards for some months, quit that position this morning for the purpose of returning to the country to engage in farming.

L. Sweeny, yard engineer, and C. H. Hpuline, road fireman, of the Pittsburg, are off duty, the former on account of sickness in his family and the latter on account of being sick.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Parry and children have returned from Detroit, where he was engaged several weeks in setting up a large gas plant for the Western Gas Construction company.

Henry Dassler, of the Pittsburg boiler shop, is kept from his work by sickness in his family. William Barman, who had been off duty for a similar reason, reported for work this morning, his wife having improved.

W. H. Tigar, chief dispatcher of the Pittsburg, and his family dined upon a nine and a half pound pickerel today. The fish was the present of Operator L. E. Barnes, who caught it Saturday in the lake near Hobart.

Mr. Germain, of Bloomington, Ill., who had been spending a week or two with his brother, Engineer Ross Germain, of the Nickel Plate, left for his home last evening. He is an engineer, also, and has a passenger run on the Chicago and Alton road, in and out of St. Louis.

F. G. Olds leaves tonight for Pittsburg to attend a meeting of the advisory board of the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association. The coming meeting is expected to be unusually interesting and the proceedings will be watched with interest by all members of the association.

LEADER OF REVOLT TAKEN

INSANE PRISONERS DASH FOR LIBERTY.

Newburg, N. Y., Oct. 22.—The all-night search for the seven maniacs who escaped last night from the Mattewan state hospital for the criminal insane has resulted in the capture of the leader, a notorious criminal named Patrick Geoghegan.

Two keepers came upon Geoghegan about Lows Point toward morning. The prison suit made him conspicuous at a distance and he was covered by the keepers' revolvers' before he knew he was discovered.

Eighteen of the regular keepers are on the trail of the other six convicts and they are calling on the police of the various towns for aid.

Keepers Cameron and Slack, who were most seriously injured in the bombardment with crockery and other missiles hurled by the mutineers, are doing well today.

After the patients had been given their supper last evening they were taken back to their apartments with their keepers. Among the number were fifteen or twenty who slept in one of the large corridors, where there were six or eight keepers. There were no suspicious movements on the part of the patients until suddenly and without warning each keeper was attacked simultaneously by two or three patients, and heavy blows fell on the heads of the surprised attendants. The keys held by the keepers were soon taken from them and a rush was made for the door.

As the patients passed through the dining room each one of them picked from the table a heavy plate, or cup, or bowl. From the dining room they went through the adjoining rooms, the doors of which were unlocked, and then into the large hall leading to the rear exit.

Through the yard they ran like deer and crowded around the big gate in the wall, while one of their number was turning the key in the lock. When the gate was thrown open they rushed out of the yard, fairly tumbling over each other in their anxiety to be free again.

In the meantime the keepers had recovered from the surprise given them by their assailants and gave an alarm. Chase was given across the hospital farm and all but seven of the patients were captured.

LEAGUERS VS. SHAMROCKS.

Columbia City Post: "South Whitley has had blood in her eye and wants to hold great honors as a base ball town. Editor Miner, who loves to praise the little city, and some of his believers, have hired the Fort Wayne Inter-State league team to represent their town and will put this club against the Shamrocks next Thursday. No doubt but what South Whitley will again claim great honors even though they do not have a man in either team. Don't you want to see the sport?"

SUICIDE OF LOVERS.

Corry, Pa., Oct. 22.—Harry Bettis and Daisy Blydenburg, prominent young people, were found dead locked in each other's arms seated on a bench in Corry park this morning. They were lovers and it is supposed to have been a case of suicide. The girl was shot through the breast and the young man through the head. He still held the revolver in his hand with two chambers empty.

A CHRISTMAS GIFT NEW ALL THE YEAR ROUND.

In choosing a Christmas gift what can afford more present or lasting pleasure than a subscription to The Youth's Companion? The delight with which it is welcomed on Christmas morning is renewed every week in the year.

Those who wish to present a year's subscription to a friend may also have The Companion's beautiful new "Puritan Girl" calendar for 1901 sent with it. This calendar reproduces in 12-color printings an ideal portrait of a Puritan maiden of Plymouth. In addition to this, all the issues of The Companion for the remaining weeks of 1900 are sent free from the time subscription is received for the new volume.

Those wishing to make a present of The Companion and mentioning it when subscribing will receive, in addition to the gifts offered above, a beautiful printed certificate of subscription to place among the presents on Christmas morning.

Illustrated announcements of the volume for 1901 sent with sample copies of the paper free to any address.

IAN MACLAREN.

Everybody has heard of the "Bonnie Brier Bush" and of its famous author, Dr. John Watson, or as he is better known, Ian Mac Laren. On a recent visit to this country, this great man said in Cincinnati, "The greatest agency for good in your country, as I see it, is your Sunday school." This is the verdict of a wise observer, who is not an American citizen, but sees American through the eyes of a foreigner. The judgment is just, however, for the Sunday school is doing more for America today than all the laws on her statute books. The International Sunday School convention seeks to promote through the state and provincial auxiliary organizations the interests of all Sunday school of all denominations. Circulars explaining the magnitude of this great work may be had for the asking by addressing Mr. Marion Lawrance, Toledo, O., secretary of the International convention.

LADIES ELECT OFFICERS.

The Fort Wayne district Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church held its annual convention at Auburn Thursday and Friday, electing officers as follows: President, Mrs. Carrie Schrader Gesaman, Fort Wayne; first vice president, Mrs. A. J. Neal, Angola; second vice president, Mrs. L. L. Cocking, New Haven; third vice president, Mrs. L. A. Beeks, Huntington; recording secretary, Mrs. S. Light, Bluffton; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. C. Jones, Auburn; treasurer, Mrs. T. R. Spalding, Fort Wayne; organizer, Mrs. S. Cobb, Auburn; superintendent of young people's work, Miss Julia Hodge, Auburn; superintendent of children's work, Mrs. E. B. Robinson, Fort Wayne. Pledges were taken for the support of thirteen India famine orphans for the ensuing year. There was a large attendance from Fort Wayne.

HIGH SCHOOL WON.

The Kendallville and Fort Wayne high school teams played a game of foot ball on Saturday afternoon at Centlivre park, and the contest resulted in a victory for the locals by a score of 23 to 0. The Fort Wayne boys were the superiors of their opponents in every way, and went through their line at will. Kendallville had the ball in their possession but twice during the entire game, and failed to make any headway against their opponents. The Fort Wayne boys have greatly improved during the past ten days under the able coaching of Dr. Jamesen, and they confidently expect to defeat the Huntington team which plays here within a few weeks.
